MR. CHAMBERLAIN'S

PREMIER BALFOUR ENDORSES HIS VIEWS

The Colonial Secretary Says Change Is Necessary to Ensure Closer Relations With Colonies.

London, May 28 .- On the motion being made for the Whitsuntide adjournment of the House of Commons, Sir Charles Dilke (Advanced Liberal) to-day raised a discussion on the fiscal views recently berlain. He maintained that Mr. Chamberlain had suggested a revolutionary change in the government policy, which was opposed to all the traditions and to the opinions of an overwhelming major-He considered that

Referring to the question of protection of the colonies from foreign rivals, the Colonial Secretary said repeated representations had been made to Germany in regard to Canada, but he did not see what Germany had to do to meet the British views, until Great Britain was n a position to touch the pockets of the German people. "Was it also not conceivable," asked Mr. Chamberlain, "that Great Britain would have to defend her trade against unjust competition, such as that of the trusts of America and the ontinent?"
