DAVID KENNEDY AND JESSIE. MACLACHLAN.

Though it is thirty years, or thereabouts, since David Kennedy was heard here, his rendition of Scottish song and story will never be forgotten by those who had the pleasure of hearing them.
The same applies to Jessie Maclachian, whose solourn among us is but of recent date. On the 5th and 6th of next month we will have an entertainment combining the pleasure received in both the Kennedy and Maclachian concerts. In George Neil, Mackenzie Murdoch, and Harry Munroe, we will hear the greatest tenor, violinist and character comedian at present before the public in Scotland, bside a fine soprano, Flora McIvor Craig, and Alfred Lawrence Murdoch, planist. In Scottish song the programme will be replete. In Scottish story and comic song Harry Munroe may be expected to compare with the late David Kennedy, and as for the wonderful violinist, the Scottish airs as he will play them will prove a revelation to all patrons.

Plan opens on Saturday morning at the box office.

A fatal accident occurred last Tuesday at the mills of the Forest Paper Company, Yarmouth, Maine. The victim was Albirt Blanchard, a man about 45 years of age, who was employed as liquor runner. Blanchard was throwing on a belt when in some way his clothes caught in the main shafting. The shaft was making 110 revolutions per minute at the time of the accident. The machinery was stopped almost instantly when his fellow workmen perceived the man's awful pilght; but Blanchard was dead before he was released. The back of his head was crushed and one leg and arm were badly torn and mangied. Blanchard was born in Prince Edward Island but removed to Maine when quite a young man. He is survived by a widow and seven children.

A serious accident occurred on Wednesday at the Wentworth Gypsum quarries, Wentworth, N. S., when Hedley Lunn, son of Wm. Lunn, Mapleton, was accidentally killed by a fail of earth which partly buried the unfortunate man and terribly mangled his llimbs. Surgical ald was at once summoned but to no avail, for the injured man lived only a few minutes. He was about thirty-five years of age and leaves a wife and eight children to mourn his loss.

IN WINTER QUARTERS.

Members of the R. K. Y. Club are now busily engaged in preparing their yachts for the winter and at Millidge-ville a good start has been made in having the fleet hauled up. Thirteen of the yachts are now safe on dry land, and every day sees others added to the number. Some of those now up have already been housed over and the lighter movable gear stored in the club house for the winter. On others preparations are being made, while many more of the yachts are still lying in the cove. The past season was one of the most enjoyable in the history of the club.

James E. Compton, of this city, has recently been granted a patent on a cooking stove in the form of an attachment whereby the fire and heat can be concentrated within a small area. The attachment is especially adapted to be used in warm weather when a large coal fire in the ordinary fire box in the cooking stove is undesirable. By this improved device a very hot fire can be obtained which imay be graduated as to area and as to the intensity of heat with the greatest nicety. The invention consists in a detachable frame and two boxes, one under each front cover open at the top and bottom with small grates therein.

The Vim Tea management is a little provoked at the ungenerous spirit displayed by the men, who have been allowed unusual privileges. They have enjoyed the Saturday half holiday privilege for the last seven months without any decrease in their salaries, and when called upon to work at night, whether for one hour or for four hours, they were allowed a half day's pay. During the winter months the men will be permitted to knock off work at 5 o'clock on Saturday.

ELOPEMENT IN NOVA SCOTIA.

TRURO, Oct. 24.-Night Policeme TRURO, Oct. 24.—Night Policeman Jones, of Amherst, captured an eloping couple in Wentworth Valley today. The 17-year-old daughter of a prominent railway official of Oxford disappeared and her father and the police got on the track Thursday. She and her lover were found in the home of his relatives, near Wentworth station. The girl's lover followed her back to Oxford, where she was taken by the police and her father.

On Saturday evening William Bellman entertained a large audience on Charlotte street, near the Salvatiot. Army barracks. His performance was original in character, but was lacking in sobriety. Later Bellman marched up the street singing and was fined up the street singing and was fined eight dollars and went back to work on the Lake Superior.

Sarah Jane Moran and Andrew Lane were drunk together on Sheffield street. Moran got a black eye, while Lane almost made a record for a hundred yards dash. Each was given two months' fail.

Nicholas Milks, who was arrested by Officer Marshall, made use of the awful schoolboy threat "You wait. I'll see you after I get out." Mills was full on Britain street, and was sent in for two months.

Robert Burns and John Welsh, reported for allowing their cows to wander on Douglas avenue, said that the pasture fence had been blown down. They were excused.

THE LAKE SUPERIOR.

The stern portion of the Lake Superior, which was floated a few days ago, will shortly be brought still farther up on the beach. Both forward and after parts of the steamer are now dry at low water, but for convenience in breaking them up the owners have decided to again use the pumps and float the pleces to still higher land.

In all, about one-third of the Superior still remains, and in this some of the heaviest pieces of metal are contained. The scrap is now being shipped to Montreal, as the Portland Rolling Mills people have all they require at present.

PROFESSIONAL LOG STEALERS.

It is possible that at least one arrest may be made in the matter of the log stealing from Cushing's mill. This work has been going on for years and during that time the millimen have lost thousands of dollars worth of property. It is claimed by some who are in a position to know, that there are a number of men who do little else than pick up on the river stuff which has either gone adrift or is stolen. Some of these men fish during the gaspereaux season, but during the remainder of the year have no visible means of support beyond what they get from the river.

THE STOEGER DIVORCE CASE

A number of those who are interested in the Stoeger divorce case, which comes before the supreme court tomorrow, left for Fredericton today, while others go up this evening. Several who were witnesses in the case in the police court will appear to give evidence in Fredericton.

Stoeger charges his wife with infideity, while she in turn declares that he is guilty of different immoral acts and is responsible for much of the fromble.

NEW JERSEY THIEVES CARRY OFF HOUSE.

Owner Went to Look at Place He Bought Recently and Found Only Hole in the Ground.

NEW YORK, Oct. 44.—If the thieves who stole the two story frame house at
No. 710 Tonnele avenue, Jersey City, attempt to steal the foundation they will probably be arrested. The building was torn down by a gang of men who worked nightly for three weeks.
Placing the boards, windows, doors and beams into a wagon, they drove off in the direction of Newark.
Located on the edge of the Hackensack meadows, and at a distance from the populous section of Jersey City, the house was not guarded by the police. Neighbors said that they thought the thieves were men in the employ of the owner, Mr. Schofuggel, a brewer in Manhattan. He bought the property about a month ago, and yesterday went over to Jersey City to look at it. He saw only a hole in the ground.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—Back from Sing Sing, with a record of having spent ten of his twenty years in prisons, reformatories and institutions, James Francis Daley made a vain hunt yesterday for a trace of his parents or relatives. His youthful appearance and apparent desire to lead a different life prompted David Willard, of the Truant School at the Tombs, to take the lad to his own home and care for him until he obtains work as a carpenter, a trade he learned in captivity. Daley said that in Sing Sing he learned for the first time that he could be of some good in the world. His parents had lived in 121st street, near Second avenue, but he could find no trace of them.
