FATAL ACCIDENT AT WOODSTOCK.

WOODSTOCK, N. B., July 9.-A very ad accident occurred last evening in the drowning of W. T. Sherwood, foreman of the Imperial Packing Company's business. Mr. Sherwood lived ust below Connell street, near the bank of the Meduxnekeag stream. Last evening he was at work in his garden. About nine o'clock he took a no uneasiness, as they thought he had come back and gone to the station to meet the 11.30 train, on which he expected his son to arrive from Sussex. When it was found that he had not gone there his neighbor, Daniel Mc-Kendrick, started up the stream and soon found the clothes on the bank which told the sad tale. A short distance away, in some three feet of water, Mr. Sherwood was discovered. It was noticed that his hand was laced over his heart as if he had been addenly stricken with an attack of heart failure

SHAKESPEARE RELICS SOLD.

LONDON, July 8 .- A copy of the first edition of Shakespeare's "Richard III.," of which three other copies are known to be in existence, has been discovered in a remarkable manner at a house at Great Misenden. Buckinghamshire The house is filled with old china and silver of rare value. While it was known that there were a number of old books they were not considered of any value until the owner was asked if she had anything of interest for an archaeological exhibition. Then it was that the precious volume of "Richard III." was found. It had been lying on the shelf for years without anyone having an idea of its existence. The book was sent up to Sotherby's

DIVORCED WIFE HAS NO CLAIM.

Fourth Folio (defective)

PARIS, July 8-An opulent British esident of Paris who has been divorced from three wives was summone by a dressmaker this week before the Civil Tribunal for payment of a bill. The British subject allows each of his divorced wives $12,000 annually. The last lady divorced was the most exacting of the trio for she insisted that her debts for dresses, hats, jewels, underwear, and so on should be paid for by her husband. Her dress bill alone which her husband was sued came to $6,000. The jeweler's bill was for $1,800 and there was also a trifle of $125, odd due to a dentist. Counsel for the dressmaker contended that his client had furnished goods to the lady before her divorce, and that consequently the British resident liable. It was decided that the divorced wife had absolutely no claim, as since she had gone away from her husban he had paid her regularly the stipulated annual allowance.
