

William Murphy, P. M'Manus, B. Cotter, E. J. Crangle, John Curran, J. F. Cunningham, James M'Crea.

On Address to Catholics of N. B.—Rev. F. X. J. Michaud, Messrs. Thos. Kickham, Charles E. Perks, John P. M'Grory, D. A. Holland, Francis Miller, Owen Smith, R. O'Brien, George Oprey, James Kehoe, Edward Curran, Rev. Father James Quinn.

On Audit Committee.—Messrs. R. Coleman, John E. Perks, John Allen, T. Daly, M. O'Brien, M. Dineen, J. Coyle, John M'Gnath, P. Foley.

Mr. Commins tendered to the Convention the escort of the St. Stephen Society, and of the Cornet Band in connection with it, on the occasion of their attending High Mass next morning. Mr. O'Donnell the escort of the Calais Temperance Society, also the escort of the St. Patrick Society, Milltown. All of which kind offers were received as a compliment, and thankfully accepted.

On motion, the Convention decided to meet at $\frac{1}{2}$ to 8 o'clock on to-morrow morning.

After Prayer the Convention adjourned until Wednesday morning at the time fixed.

PROCEEDINGS OF WEDNESDAY.

The Delegates assembled at the Catholic Hall, St. Stephen, at 7.45, a. m., on Wednesday, July 1st, and marched in procession to Milltown Catholic Church, escorted by the Societies of St. Stephen, Milltown, and Calais, headed by the Temperance Cornet Band attached to St. Stephen's C. T. A. Society. High Mass was celebrated by Rev. F. X. J. Michaud, Spiritual Director of the Union. After the first Gospel a beautiful Sermon was delivered by the Rev. James Quinn. On behalf of himself and the congregation, he extended to the delegates a hearty welcome to St. Stephen. He deeply regretted the loss sustained by the Union and the Temperance cause generally by the dea

tribute
indefat
Heaver
of man
and ex
cause
from al tures, h
the nec
accomp
The l
mon wi
attenda
Selec
beautifi
Immu
march
the Hal
On m

Pursu
p. m.
The s submitte
his Stati

To the T
Un
As Pre
work tha
reached.