SENSE AND NONSENSE

Some Brief Paragraphs Dealing With Subjects That Are Not Funny, and Some That Are

Half the things we worry ourselves to death wishing for, would be forgotten once we had them.

Provident Pa.—Mr. Rural Hamlet (to ministerial agent)—"Do have some more of the corn, Dr. Eighty; it came out of our own garden."

Little Buttin—Hamlet—"Yes, 'n' the chicken came out our own garden, too. Pa said he bet the folks next door would keep their hens at home after he caught a few more of 'em."

The man who doesn't like children and dogs, usually has all the objectionable characteristics of both.

Located.—Willis—"So you were up at college to see your son? How is he? Was he on the football team?"

Gillis.—Judging by his looks, I think the football team was on him."

Find points of agreement rather than disagreement.

Fishy—Knicker—"Was your house robbed?"

Bocker.—"Yes; burglars stole the plants, cat, and canary just before my wife came home."

We are judged by our worst work.

The workman was engaged in excavating operations, i.e. he was digging.

The wayfarer of the inquisitive turn of mind stopped for a moment to look on.

"My Man," said the wayfarer at length, "what are you digging for?"

The workman looked up.

"Money," he replied.

"Money," ejaculated the amazed wayfarer. "And when do you expect to strike it?"

"Saturday," replied the workman, and resumed operations.

In this world a man must be either the anvil or the hammer.

The Logical Finish.—Dayton—"I know the tango and the turkey-trot, but what's the St. Vitus?"

Doyle—"It's the one you do with a trained nurse."

In olden days the dime novel could be bought for ten cents. Now we pay $1.50 for it.

Incredulous—Wife—"John, I must have a new hat and gown!"

Husband—"That's good!"

Wife—"And gloves, shoes, silk stockings, opera-cloak!"

Husband—"That's good!"

Wife—"Wake up, you wretch! You're dreaming you're in a poker game!"

Be timely wise rather than wise in time.

"George, what are you burning dear?" she asked, going to the grate and peering over his shoulder.

"The letters I wrote you before we were married."

"You heartless wretch! I wonder if all men are so devoid of sentiment? You—"

"I am doing it in your interest, dear. I'm trying to fix things so that when I die nobody can dispute my will on the ground of insanity."

Paris women are now trying to get the pear shape. We personally prefer some of the Canadian peaches.

Before a man stands on his rights, he should be sure that he has some.

An altercation arose between a farmer and a so-called expert in agriculture.

"Sir," said the expert, "do you realize that I have been at two universities, one in this country and one in Germany?"

"What of that?" demanded the farmer with a faint smile. "I had a calf nursed by two cows, and the more he was nursed the greater calf he grew."

An independent candidate in a Quebec election got only two votes. He was hardly an also-ran.

Honesty equips a man with the sense of detection of dishonesty.

Sure Test.—Betty—"I shall not wed until I can marry a hero."

Allice—"Well, my dear, just show any man who proposes to you a schedule of your yearly expenses, and if he doesn't back out he's one."

Throw your cares to the wind if it is blowing away from you.

The First Step.—Miss Young—"In selecting a husband, what would you consider first?"

Miss Elderleigh—"A proposal."

The Last Straw.—Some smart young men across the line have invented the slit trousers and now a set of equally swift chaps have tried to make the decolette shirt front popular.

After this, let's give the women the vote, and anything else they want.

His Class.—First Loafer—"Hullo, Bill! Got a new overcoat, I see. What did it cost yer?"

Second Ditto—"Six months. I never wears cheap duds."

MEMBERS ARE INITIATED INTO MYSTERIES OF LODGE

The I. O. G. T. Are a Very Live Organization in Sidney and the Membership Roll is Growing Rapidly.

A large number of members attended the regular meeting of the Sidney I. O. G. T. lodge on Monday evening last, when two more new members were initiated and the membership list is perceptibly lengthening from week to week. A report of the meeting held on Wednesday, Nov. 26, when Rev. Hugh Dobson, of Alberta, was the speaker. At that meeting the speaker showed the necessity for each citizen sending a letter to the post-master general requesting that the Dominion parcels post system shall not be used as a means of transporting alcoholic liquor. Mr. Dobson said that unless such a step was taken, and that immediately, there will surely be no restriction placed upon the use of the Royal mail.

Several questions which had been submitted to the lodge the previous week, were discussed and this part of the evening proved both interesting and profitable.

The lodge meets in Berquist's small hall every Monday evening at 8 o'clock. All who are interested in temperance work are invited to join. Application forms may be obtained from the secretary, Miss Logan, or from the assistant-secretary, Mr. Lait.

—Smoke Morena cigars. To be had at the Sidney Hotel.
