A meeting of the Local Branch of the Victoria Order of Nurses was held in the Red Cross Rooms on Tuesday afternoon, with a good number of the members present. The constitution drafted by the Executive Committee was read and approved.

Arrangements were made to increase the membership and the funds of the order. Committees were appointed to approach the various ladies' organizations of the churches of the town with a view to getting them to cooperate in this work.

A letter was read from the Central organization at Ottawa, stating that it would be impossible to provide a nurse for several weeks, but it was hoped that after that time arrangements could be made to carry on the active work in the town.

At last after a month of weary waiting the frame for the saw to be used in cutting the municipal wood has arrived and is being installed to-day and everything will be in shape by Monday to go right ahead and fill the orders, of which there are quite a number. The delay has caused considerable inconvenience but it is hardly probable any orders will be cancelled owing to the non-arrival of the saw sooner.

The regular meeting of the Finance Committee of the Town Council will be held to-night.

A number of rinks from the Thistle Curling Club of London are in town to-day playing a friendly game with the locals.

The Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian Church met at the home of Mrs. J. A. Harper, Young Street, yesterday afternoon, there being a most gratifying attendance of members present. After the regular business had been concluded a most dainty lunch was served.

Almost every day there are enquiries from people living outside and who are desirous of moving to town for suitable houses to rent but houses seem to be a very scarce article. Every available house or flat in town has been taken up and the time seems most opportune if we wish the population to increase, to see that suitable houses that will rent reasonably are erected in town as speedily as possible. Within the past few weeks a number of property owners have disposed of their homes to outside people and now they see in a quandary as to where to find shelter for themselves. Necessity undoubtedly creates a demand and much building should be in order the coming summer.

DOCTOR PRESCRIBES VINOL For Schoolboy To Create Strength After Sickness.

Vinol, N.J.—"I am a schoolboy, 17 years of age, and typhoid fever left me weak and debilitated, so I had to stay out of school three months—my doctor prescribed Vinol. It has built up my strength and now I am feeling fine"—S.E. Bunce.

The reason Vinol was so successful in this boy's case, is because it contains beef and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptones and glycerophosphates, the very elements needed to build up a weakened, run-down system, make rich, red blood and create strength.

Big Attendance At Organ Recital

St. Matthews Church was crowded to the doors last evening when about 1300 people assembled to hear an organ recital by Frederic Tristau Egner Music Co. Bae a former Waterloo boy.

Mr. Egner is a musician of great repute having held positions in New York Toronto and Detroit and the program rendered last evening was beyond doubt the finest recital of organ music heard in this city for many years.

For most part the program called for expert manipulation of the instrument as in the opening Overture, "William Tell." This Mr. Egner handled in a perfect manner.

The Overture opens very quietly with a lovely movement in which the finest qualities are utilized with marvelous skill to depict the "mystery" which reigns in mountain solitudes at the hour of sunrise. Presently clouds gather, the raindrops fall, and the roar of "heaven's artillery" rends the air. As the storm dies away a delicious "Pastoral" is heard. This is based on one of those simple melodies called "Ranz des Vaches" played by the mountaineers to call their herds together. The bird like passages for the flute, the notes of which frisk gaily around the more serious theme of the piece, have contributed greatly to the celebrity which this movement enjoys all the world over. What follows is simple. There is a call to arms and then begins the triumphant quickstep which has heard once to forget never. The determination expressed in its strongly-marked impetuous rhythm, the headlong rush of the clarinets, the wonderful way in which climaxes after climaxes are hurled at the listener, the fire and brilliancy to resist "The storm" by J. Lemmens however stands out from the rest of the program and it will be a long time before the memories of this wonderful piece of music will be forgotten by those present. So realistic was the piece presented, this wonderful composition portrays Nature sleeping under the golden sunshine—with the song of the Shepherd's flute and the twitter of birds. A low rumble is heard, depicting the approach of a storm which soon rages in all its fury. As the storm dies away, a beautiful "Hymn of Peace" is heard in the distance, intermingled with the joyous song of the Shepherd. The fields are refreshed, the Shepherd's song dies away, and as night falls, rest and quietness settles over all.

Mr. Egner showed himself fully master of the organ and was equally pleasing as a singer, being the possessor of a deep, rich baritone voice, his rendering of "Abide with Me" was perfect.

Mrs. C.K. Smith contributed a pleasing solo, a spirit flower, her voice carrying well in the high church, likewise the Male-Quartette who rendered their number in a pleasing manner.

The remainder of the program which is given below in detail held the audience enraptured throughout its entire length. "Hark, Hark My Soul" Which brought in a solo part for Mr. Egner and Mrs. C.K. Smith with a full choir, did great credit to the director Mr. O.G. Smith, the tone and quality being held well throughout the entire piece.

The singing of the national anthem brought the program to a close, and the hundreds of people left the church delighted with the recital and proud that Mr. Egner is a member of this locality.

Important Arrests made Yesterday

FOLLOWING ATTEMPTED ROBBERY

P. C. Farrell makes "Find"

When Police Constable Pat Farrell yesterday afternoon directed his attention to a young fellow on the street he paved the way for the solving of an attempted highway robbery mystery which occurred in the city. To-day three young men, William Beckstein, John Sauer and Albert Lemanski are in the toils of the law pending further investigation of their activities.

The alleged story about Beckstein and Sauer is this. At about ten o'clock Tuesday evening Mr. A. J. Lehman, the well-known carter, after putting his wagon and horses away, was accosted by two masked men held up at the point of a revolver, and a demand for his money was made of him. The incident occurred in the lane near his home, "No money," he said, when the men accosted him. A shot was fired and the young fellows ran without having had the satisfaction of going through pockets. Mr. Lehman went home and next morning he reported the incident to the police. Secretly and quietly the police worked in the efforts to get a clue. Yesterday afternoon P. C. "Pat" Farrell was on duty on King Street and he spotted what in his estimation was a possible "find." It was near Young Street where he suddenly tapped a young chap on the shoulder and informed him that he would wish to have him accompany him into the nearby hotel. "You got a gun with you? Haven't you?" he asked the young fellow. The latter after hesitating, admitted he had and in reply to Pat's "Let me see it," opened his coat and pulled out a big 38 calibre revolver, stuck in a belt containing rounds of deadly ammunition. "Who was with you the other night?" Pat asked.

The young man denied any knowledge of what the officer was driving at but finally when "Pat" informed him that Mr. Lehman knew the parties who had held him up, he admitted that he knew something about it. "Had I known that you were going to try to get me, you'd have never done it," the boy said.

"Why I'd never have given you the gun and I would have covered you."

The Police Constable took his "find" up to the station. Later in the day he got track of Sauer and brought him in too. The latter had a big 40 calibre out-of-date and unloaded revolver.

Later in the evening Police Constable Albert Lemanski, the charge against him was carrying a revolver without a permit.

In police court this morning Lemanski appeared to answer this charge. He admitted it. "I got it on Tuesday afternoon and last evening I went to take it back to the fellow." He was remanded for a week pending further investigation.

When Sauer and Beckstein were called and questioned by the Court they said they were sixteen years of age. "What have you to say?"

Magistrate Weir asked. "Well, not much. We were told by a fellow who said he was a spotter to go and try to get him," Sauer said.

The Court decided to adjourn the case for a week.

It has also been ascertained that a few evenings ago a woman was held up by two youths, who, however, did not have a gun. After having the touch of the woman's hand on their faces they departed, impressed by woman's power. The authorities also are investigating this case.

The arrest by P. C. Farrell, which opened the way to the solution of the case, was a clever piece of work and is another good mark in his record as an officer of the law.

The War's Impetus In Literary Lines

Prof. McCrimmon Delivers A Stirring Address

The impetus that a great world upheaval gives to the soul expressing itself and the result of the big war in the literary line was impressed upon the attendants at the Women's Canadian Club meeting in the Y.W.C.A. building last evening. Dr. McCrimmon, Chancellor of McMaster University, was the speaker. His subject was "Heatbeats from the Great War."

Dr. McCrimmon has a store of war poetry and effectively used it all through his speech in showing how the soul of individuals and nations have found themselves. Starting at the point where Britain entered the war, he quoted gems of poetry one after the other which showed the conviction of the individual and revealed his soul. The unselfish purpose of Britain in entering the war, the stricken Belgian people, the response of an Empire people uncoerced, the gallantry of boys at the front who saved the day, the heroism of France, the steadfastness of Italy, the Americans ultimate realization of the dangers to liberty, the British Navy, the battlefield in the hearts of mothers, realization of those men who to-day sleep in Flanders field, the preservation of liberty and democracy. All these were touched on by the reciting of beautiful poems, written in the war period.

Dr. McCrimmon in the course of his illustration remarked: "You can never tell where civilization is going unless there is a Christian heart in it, unless God has a very relation in it." He pointed to the fact that Britain's part was the expression of her soul devoted to the cause of justice.

The address made a deep and lasting impression on the audience and after the same a fitting vote of thanks to the guest was passed.

In the audience were a number of members of the Canadian Club.

THE TOMMY ATKINS CHAPTER'S GOOD WORK IS REVIEWED

Gratifying Reports Submitted at Annual Meeting

The Annual Meeting of the Tommy Atkins Chapter I.O.D.E. took place recently.

Officers for the year 1918 were as follows:

Hon. Regent—Mrs. C.H. Mills. Hon. Vice Reg.—Mrs. D.S. Bowly. Regent—Miss Carolyn Bowly. 1st. Vice Reg.—Miss Elsie Good. 2nd. Vice Reg.—Miss Delphine Berlet.

Secretary—Miss Edna Rittinger. Asst. Sec.—Miss Nina Honsberger. Echoes—Miss Albina Oberholzer. Treasurer—Miss Elaine Robinson. Standard Bearer—Miss Bessie Bowman.

The officers and members of the Tommy Atkins Chapter, Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, I, as secretary have the honour to present to you the annual report of our work during the year 1918 until the present time.

During the year we have been ten regular and quite a number of emergency meetings held. Our membership is still increasing, the total number now being fifty-four.

Our activities commenced on Feb. 23rd when a shower was held for stationery and cigars for the Brighton Military Hospital, England, and Victrola Records for the Preopert Sanitarium. The result of this shower was splendid, and two large boxes of stationery and cigars were packed and sent to England. Some time after quite a number of our girls met and went to the Sanitarium. Gifts of candy, magazines, books and Victrola Records were presented to the boys and a large Union Jack to the Vocational School there.

On Tuesday afternoon, April 23rd, a Military Euchre was held in the Merchants' Bank Hall, and in the evening a dance was given. The cash receipts were $65.50.

Two weeks later rehearsals were commenced for a Musical Comedy presented by our girls at the Allen Theatre, under the direction of Mr. Neville. This proved to be a great success and the door receipts amounted to $702.75.

On the evening of July 24th, an informal dance was held at the Bridgeport Casino which added $32.90 to our funds.

After the Military Tattoo at Waterloo on August 2nd, the Chapter gave a dance in the pavilion and the receipts amounted to $67.80.

At the time of the Bowling Tournament on August 5th and 6th, the Chapter undertook to serve refreshments to the Bowlers, and profited to the extent of $34.80.

In October it was arranged to hold a Midway in partnership with Mr. Geo. Philip, but on account of the influenza epidemic it had to be postponed until November. It was formally opened on November 6th by Brig-Gen. Shannon of London who came here due to the efforts of Mrs. Mills. The Chapter was very agreeably surprised on the opening night to receive a beautiful I.O.D.E. Shield from Mrs. Mills.

At the time of the following month of the Hosiery Regent. Quite a number of donations were gratefully received from local manufacturers. A lovely table was given by Alderman Geo. Lippert, a chair by Mr. H. Krug, chair by Mr. Wunder, a $50.00 Victrola Board by Mr. Geo. Lang and a gold piece by Mr. E. Seagram of Waterloo.

We were all very pleased that the lucky ticket for the Gold piece was drawn by a returned soldier. The Kitchener Park Board, Post Office City Hall, Kaufman Rubber Co., Economical Fire Ins. Co. and Merchants Bank were very kind in loaning us bunting, lanterns, flags etc. for which we were very grateful. Our midway was open for ten days and the total receipts amounted to $2420.32.

On December 23rd, several of our girls went to the Sanitarium to extend Xmas cheer to the boys. They decorated a Xmas Tree and presented the boys with gum and smokes. Inquiries were made of Captain Proctor as to the needs of the Institution, and it was finally decided to present them with two writing tables and chairs.

A very successful New Year's Eve Ball was held on Dec. 31st, at the Masonic Hall. The Craftsman's Club Rooms were very kindly loaned to us for the occasion. Besides spending a very pleasant social evening our guests we were very pleased to know that the Chapter benefited to the extent of $206.00.

In response to urgent appeals to promote Educational Work, the Chapter presented a beautiful portrait of His Majesty King George 5th to the Collegiate Institute, St. Jerome's College, and the Council, Chamber.

Various donations have been made, the following being of the most importance.

Adoption of a French War Orphan, $115.00; French Relief, $100.00; Salvation Army, $100.00; Serbian Relief, $50.00; Local Branch of Navy League, $50.00; Halifax Sufferers, $50.00; Canadian Nurses Home in London, England, $35.00; At present we are having $200.00 worth of wool knitted in Belgium which will be sent to Belgium.

We all know the ravages the war has worked in the European Countries, especially France, and in consideration of this the Chapter has unanimously decided to adopt a French War Orphan for a year. The sum of $115.00 is the amount required, and same has been sent to Toronto to be forwarded. Literature has been received with regard to the child, and personal gifts will be sent from our members.

Our year's work ended very recently by presenting another Musical Comedy, "The Isle of Love" at the Roma Theatre, also under the direction of Mr. Neville. It again proved a success which was shown by the door receipts, which amounted to $550.00. We are indeed very grateful to Dr. L.A. Koeppe for rendering his services so faithfully as Musical Director on both occasions.

In conclusion I wish to state that we have conscientiously tried to do our "bit" for the Empire, in accordance with our motto "For Canada and the Motherland." Our brave men have won their way to what we all hope will be a just and lasting peace, and let us always keep in mind that our responsibilities to them have not ended, but to us continue our work with an earnest resolve and enter into our New Year with the hopefulness and encouragement.

Most respectfully submitted, Edna Rittinger, Secretary.

Spring-Like Weather. The spring-like weather today calls to mind the old superstition that the weather prevailing on the last Friday in the month is a forerunner of the weather for the following month. Judging by today we shall expect March to come and go like the proverbial lamb for overcoats were scarce things on King Street, spring bonnets being far more common with the ladies.

The annual meeting of the local branch of The Upper Canada Bible Society and Tract Society will be held on Sunday Mar 2nd after the evening services in the churches, about 8.15 p.m. in Trinity Methodist Church. Everybody invited.

Visit of Dominion Organizer to Kitchener W.C.T.U. The February meeting of the W.C.T.U. proved to be a Red Letter Day for the organization. After devotional exercises and routine business was disposed of, a reception service for new members, was given. About 35 new members were received, putting the membership well over one hundred. Each new member was presented the "bow of ribbon white," the emblem of the W.C.T.U. The address of the afternoon was given by Mrs. Hyslop, Dominion Organizer, who for the past sixteen years, has rendered such valiant service to the cause she loves. Her subject was the "Adaptability of the W.C.T.U." She explained the meaning of the pledge, and gave a resume of the work of the W.C.T.U. since its organization; how it has blazed the trail in so many ways for others to follow up. She briefly, but clearly, told of the different branches of work taken up. Cradle-roll, work among shantymen, moral education, Franchise, etc., were some branches described. In all the W.C.T.U. has over forty branches of work—all with the object of making the world more home-like, and a safer place for our children to become honorable citizens.

OLD ENGLISH RECIPES FOR CATARRH, CATARRHAL DEAFNESS AND HEAD NOISES.

If you know of some one who is troubled with Catarrhal Deafness, head noises or ordinary catarrh cut out this formula and hand it to them and you may have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. In England scientists for a long time past have recognized that catarrh is a constitutional disease and necessarily requires constitutional treatment.

Says, inhalers an nose douches are liable to irritate the delicate air passages and force the disease into the middle ear which frequently means total deafness, or else the disease may be driven down the air passages towards the lungs which is equally as dangerous. The following formula which is used extensively in the damp English climate is a constitutional treatment and should prove especially efficacious to sufferers here who live under more favorable climate conditions.

Secure from your druggist 1 ounce of Eucalypti (Eucalyptus) strength. Take this home and add to it 1 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day. This will often bring quick relief from distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and hearing improve as the inflammation in the eustachian tubes is reduced. Eucalypti used in this way acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system and has a tonic action that helps to obtain the desired results. The preparation is easy to make, costs little and is pleasant to take. Every person who has catarrh or head noises or is hard of hearing should give this treatment a trial.

Gas in the Stomach Is Dangerous

Records Daily Use of Magnesia to Overcome Trouble Caused by Fermenting Food and Acid Indigestion

Gas and wind in the stomach accompanied by that flat bloated feeling after eating are almost certain evidence of the presence of excessive hydrochloric acid in the stomach, creating so called "acid indigestion."

Acid stomachs are dangerous because too much acid irritates the delicate lining of the stomach often leading to gastritis accompanied by serious stomach ulcers. Food ferments and acids creating the distressing gas which distends the stomach and hampers the normal functions of the vital internal organs, often affecting the heart.

It is the worst of folly to neglect such a serious condition or to treat with ordinary digestive aids which have no neutralizing effect on the stomach acids. Instead
