

Occupants of the Old Graveyard

—AND—

Miscellaneous Poems and Songs

by

JOHN L. WATSON
BRAMPTON

Be mine to read the visions old,
Which thy awakening bards have told,
And while they meet my tranced view,
Hold each strange tale devoutly true.

—Collins.

Printed for the author by
THE CONSERVATOR, Queen St. E.
Brampton, Ont.

1918