THE YEAR BOOK 1913

GIVES an account of the past year's work of all the various Missionary and Benevolent Boards and Committees of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, its publications and its various Theological Colleges.

Also contains much information regarding plans for the year to come. Two special articles on the Church Offices, East and West, are of interest.

The Year Book is compact: one holds it easily in the hand. It is well printed, and therefore easily read. It gives information which every Presbyterian in Canada ought to possess. And it does this at a marvellously small price.
