

“ To all who may be disposed to emigrate from and who may be accepted by the superintendent, the government will afford a passage to Canada, and will convey them to their lands, free of expense ; provisions will be found them, and they will be furnished with medical assistance during the whole of their voyage and journey. Upon their arrival on the tract destined for their settlement, every male emigrant above the age of eighteen years, and under forty-six, shall receive a location ticket or order for seventy acres of land ; the utensils necessary for a new settler shall be furnished them at the public expense ; and they shall receive provisions for one whole year after they shall have taken possession of their lands.

“ As an inducement to industry and good conduct, an additional tract of thirty acres shall be reserved, adjoining to each grant of seventy acres, of which the right of pre-emption, upon the terms which will be explained by the superintendent, shall be preserved for ten years to the proprietor of such adjoining tract.
The terms upon which such additional grant will be made, with the mode and time of obtaining the patent for the first grant, the fees of office to be paid upon the same, and the conditions which will be annexed to it, are all particularly set forth in a paper printed by authority, which will be furnished by the superintendent to each settler, and of which the terms will be rigidly fulfilled by the government ; and such conditions as are incumbent upon the party, will require to be, in like manner, punctually performed.

“ As it is extremely desirable that the assistance thus offered by government shall be afforded only to persons capable of becoming useful settlers in a new colony, it is to be understood that no person shall re-
