

No.	Name.	No.	Date.	SUBJECT.	Page
93	Colonial Office ..	..	Feb. 8, 1881	Substance of Foreign Office letter of 3rd instant has been sent to Governor of Newfoundland, and is under consideration by him ..	102
94	Sir E. Thornton ..	4 Telegraphic	10,	Mr. Evarts has read to him two despatches addressed to Mr. Lowell: one in regard to Fortune Bay and the other concerning a fresh claim ..	103
95	To Colonial Office ..	Confidential	11,	Copy of Sir E. Thornton's telegram No. 4 ..	103
96	Colonial Office ..	..	12,	Governor of Newfoundland continues to object to admission of American claims beyond certain limits. Suggests reply ..	103
97	To Colonial Office ..	..	12,	Concurs in proposed reply to Governor ..	104
98	Colonial Office ..	Secret	12,	Copy of telegram from Governor of Newfoundland alluded to in No. 96 ..	104
99	Mr. Evarts to Mr. Lowell	..	4,	Observations on Lord Granville's letter of the 27th October, 1880. Disappointment at delay in settlement. Accepts proposition of Her Majesty's Government on certain conditions ..	104
100	To Sir E. Thornton ..	29	18,	Substance of conversation with Mr. Lowell on 16th instant when preceding letter was communicated ..	107
101	" "	30 Confidential	18,	Copies of Nos. 93 and 96. ..	107
102	Colonial Office ..	..	17,	Sir J. Glover has been told not to communicate to the Colonial Legislature the telegraphic correspondence which has passed in the Fortune Bay matter ..	108
103	To Colonial Office ..	..	18,	Copies of Mr. Evarts' note of the 4th instant and of despatch No. 29 to Sir E. Thornton. Requests observations ..	108
104	To the Lord Chancellor	..	19,	Copy of Mr. Evarts' note. Shall a lump sum be offered without further inquiry into particular items? ..	108
105	Lord Chancellor ..	Memo.	21,	Concurs in proposed offer of a moderate lump sum, but doubts its being accepted. No injury should be allowed to happen to the permanent rights and interests of the Colony ..	109
106	To Sir E. Thornton ..	33	21,	Further conversation with Mr. Lowell. A fresh claim is to be put forward by United States' Government. Has suggested the acceptance of a lump sum in lieu of further negotiation ..	109
107	Mr. Lowell ..	..	22,	Prefers a fresh claim for compensation by two United States' fishing vessels on account of alleged acts of violence towards them on the part of the inhabitants of Job's Cove, Newfoundland ..	110
108	To Sir E. Thornton ..	6 Telegraphic	22,	Substance of second conversation with Mr. Lowell (see No. 106) ..	112
109	Sir E. Thornton ..	49	11,	Extends telegram No. 4 ..	112
110	" "	9 Confidential	23,	Mr. Evarts will accept a liberal offer. He suggests 80,000 dollars. Advises a closing with these terms ..	113
111	To Sir E. Thornton ..	33 A Telegraphic	23,	Copy of Mr. Lowell's letter of the 22nd instant, putting forward fresh claims. He has recommended their being lumped with the Fortune Bay claims for united settlement. Matter has been referred to Colonial Office ..	114
112	To Colonial Office ..	..	23,	Copy of preceding ..	114
113	" "	..	23,	Copies of Mr. Lowell's letter of the 22nd instant, and of draft to Sir E. Thornton (No. 33) ..	114
114	" "	..	23,	Points out that the Job's Cove case, now put forward by the United States' Government, has already formed the subject of a correspondence between the Colonial Office and Foreign Office ..	114
115	To Sir E. Thornton ..	34	24,	Copy of Mr. Evarts' letter of the 4th instant to Mr. Lowell ..	115
116	" "	35	24,	Further conversation with Mr. Lowell. Mr. Evarts accepts lump sum as a basis of settlement. Her Majesty's Government offer 15,000 l. to cover all claims, question of Treaty rights being reserved. Has suggested a system of joint cruisers, as between French and British Governments ..	115