

the Importation of Masts, Yards, and Bowsprits, or of Timber fit for Naval Purposes, from the British Colonies in North America, Duty-free, shall be, and the same is hereby continued, until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and ten.

LONDON: Printed by GEORGE FYRE and ANDREW STRAHAN, Printers to the King's most Excellent Majesty. 1808.