

Mr Martineau claims that there is $235.29 due him by the Department. He has altogether failed to substantiate this claim. In view of this fact you will understand that the Department can not, as above intimated do anything further in the matter.

Mr Martineau's letter to you and the statement which accompanied it are returned herewith.

Yours truly.

James Redley
Deputy Supt. General of Indian Affairs.