

it is stated that the License covers the same description of timber as originally contained in the License issued in 1845, and the License of 1845 enclosed with your letter of the 15th Oct. last includes only white pine saw logs.

I will thank you to inform me whether the License issued on the 9th August 1853 was a renewal of that of 1845 or a new License; and if a renewal, why it included more than the License of 1845; and if a new License whether the consent of the Indians to all other descriptions of timber
