My dear Willie:

We are all delighted with the photo of yourself which arrived early on Friday afternoon. Just as I was unpacking it Mrs. Greenwood, Art, Gladys, and the little boy arrived from the Point. They too, thought it a splendid likeness. I am very glad to have it for the last picture I have of you is the one on my mantel which you gave sealed a good many years ago. Many, many thanks for it. It is a gift - I thoroughly enjoyed and having been taken when you
