

BY THE SAME AUTHOR.

THE MODERN PRODIGAL SON;
OR,
THE LOST FOUND.

12mo. pp. 175. Toned Paper, Bound in Fine Cloth, Gilt Edges, extra Gilt Title, 75cts. 18mo. 50cts.

PART I.

THE WANDERINGS OF THE MODERN PRODIGAL.

- Chap. 1st.—Glimpses of Home Life in the Wanderer's early days.
" 2nd.—The Wanderer inquiring into the Nature of Sin.
" 3rd.—The Wanderer's resolve to leave Home.
" 4th.—The Wanderer's first step. He goes from home among Strangers.
" 5th.—The Wanderer's second step. He runs into Riot.
" 6th.—The Wanderer misspends his substance, illustrating the consequences of Wandering.
" 7th.—The Wanderer Homeless and in want.
" 8th.—The Wanderer vainly attempts to remedy his condition.

PART II.

THE PRODIGAL REPENTANT RETURNS TO HIS FATHER'S HOUSE, AND IS RECEIVED IN PEACE.

- Chap. 1st.—The Wanderer's Reason Restored.
" 2nd.—The Wanderer's Penitential Resolutions.
" 3rd.—The Wanderer's Penitential Sorrow and Confession.
" 4th.—The Meeting and Reconciliation.
" 5th.—Home Joys on the Wanderer's Return.

*Should be put in the hands of all young people of William Tell.
Green Bay P. O. Manitowish Island.*