

*Cavan, an Irish county.	cavern, ⁴⁸⁰ a cave.
Cain, Abel's brother.
(Du) Quesne, a French Canadian } governor.	cane, ³⁵⁴ a reed.
Cyprus, a Mediterranean island.	cypress, a tree, named from this island.
Der, a French river.	share, ⁹³⁷ a part allotted.
Cowes, a town in the I. of Wight.	cows, the plural of cow .
Cortez, the conqueror of Mexico.	cortes, the Spanish parliament.
Dane, a man of Denmark.	deign, ¹¹¹² to condescend.
Doubs, a French river.	do, to perform.
Erne, an Irish lake and river.	earn, to work for.
Ernest, a man's name.	earnest, serious.
Forth, a Scotch river.	fourth, next after the third.
Foyle, an Irish estuary.	foil, to baffle or defeat. ⁸²³
Finn, a native of Finland.	fin, an organ of motion in fish.
Frise, belonging to Friesland in Holland.	freeze, to congeal ⁴⁶⁸ with cold.
Gaul, the old name of France; a Frenchman.	gall, bile, bitterness.
(St.) Goar, a Swiss city.	gore, clotted blood.
Gibbon, an English infidel historian.	gibbon, the long armed Malay ape
Greece, a country in Europe.	grease, fat.
(De) Grasse, a French admiral.	grass, the herbage of the field.
Handel, a great German musician.	handle, to take in the hand.
Hawke, an English admiral.	hawk, a bird of prey.
Hyde, an English surname.	hide, to conceal.
Holy I., an Island off Northumberland: also one off Anglesea.	holly, ¹²⁴⁷ a shrub long connected with Christmas festivities.
Hartz, a German mountain range.	hearts, the plural of heart .
Hugh, a man's name.	hew, to cut down.
Jane, a woman's name.	jean, a cotton stuff. See p. 156.
Jewry, Judah: a Jewish quarter of a town.	jury, ¹²⁴⁹ the judges of evidence in a law case.

Those marked * are not pronounced exactly alike.