Of the assassin may be more sudden, but it is not more sure than the dire punishment meted out to the man who abuses his stomach. No man is stronger than his stomach. When the stomach is diseased the whole body is weakened.

I was confined to my house and part of the time to my bed. I had taken gallons of medicine, but it only fed the disease; but I must say that 'Golden Medical Discovery' has cured me, and to-day I am stronger than I have been for twenty years. ## THE MARKET

Planet Office, Tuesday evening, September 24.

John Waddell, of the firm of J. B. Stringer & Co., gives The Planet the following grain gossip:

Wheat—The volume of receipts continues light, with the mills good buyers at 66c for standard samples. Some demand exists for export, but price is rather high for that market at present.

The coarse grains are in good demand, they have been from the start of the season. Receipts are only moderate, rather under the demand, and this fact has put the market up to some extent, and barley brings 95c this week for best samples. Oats 53c and corn 50 to 52c.

Beans, the old crop are entirely sold out. The new crop is not to be had to any extent yet, but by next week a limited quantity will have found its way to the market.

The situation is an unsettled one at this writing and buyers are hard to find at any fancy figures anyway, all believing in lower prices. A fair quotation probably, is $1.20 to $1.30 for best prime samples for "immediate delivery." Dealers anticipate an active trade in them next month and on.

The following are the prices:

Wheat 66c.
Mixed oats, 31c.
White oats 33c.
Barley, 95c.
Corn, shelled 50 to 52.
Ear corn, 45c.
Beans, Prime, $1.20 to $1.30.
Buckwheat, 45c.

OUTSIDE MARKETS.

HENRY CLEWS' REPORT.

Henry Clews, in his weekly report to this journal, says:—

The market seems likely to go through a period of readjustment for a few weeks, in which stocks of merit, will hold their own, while those which were pushed to excessive altitudes will find their true level. Good earnings and conservative management will probably support the best properties. What will result from the various deals it is impossible to say, as these may be postponed until the market gets into more satisfactory shape. Should business this fall not equal expectations we may see further declines in some securities and the industrial will be the first to reflect any movement of this sort.

"Is this your first venture in matrimony?" the preacher asked, while the groom was out in the vestibule giving certain instructions to the best man, who was, also, his head clerk.
