WITH JELLICOE IN THE NORTH SEA

Captain Frank H. Shaw

A "rattling good" tale of the War by one who knows what fighting means. It gives a very clear insight of life in the King's Navy under War conditions.

THE BOY'S BOOK OF PIONEERS - - - Eric Wood

The story of the path-finders of the Empire is of peculiar fascination. The author has taken particular pains to get at the real stories, not only of the well-known pioneers—Livingstone, etc.—but of those lesser-known spirits whose adventures are as wonderful and thrilling as any of the heroes of fiction.

WITH 4 COLOUR PLATES AND 4 OTHER ILLUSTRATIONS.

THE ALL-ABOUT SERIES

All About Inventions and Discoveries

Frederick A. Talbot

The brilliant author of "Railway Wonders of the World" has supplied a fascinating volume. Under many heads he deals with the most remarkable inventions and discoveries: the Telephone, Wireless, the Typewriter, the Atmospheric Brake, Food from the Air, the Steam Turbine, Oil, Gas, and so forth. In addition to telling the story of their romantic development, he shows how their application to modern life has brought about wonderful changes.

Written brightly, and as non-technically as possible, the book should prove a ready favourite with boys.

WITH COLOUR FRONTISPICE AND A PROFUSION OF PHOTOGRAPHS. CLOTH GILT, $1.50
