A Bit of Sentiment

WHEN at eve I ait beside her And earess her soft black hair, I am blessed with sweet contents Life is calm and peaceful there.

When the daily strife is ended And, aweary of the fight; I direct my footsteps homeward. Glad for rest that comes with night;

At the gate she always greets me-Greets me in her oheery way. And I quite forget the harsh words That I had in mind to say

Always patient, kind and faithful, Helpful constant, true: I row She is worthy and I love her, (She's a splendid Holstein cow.) OLABENOE I. CAMPBELL, in Holstein:Friesian World.
