EXTRAORDINARY RECOVERY OF LOST MO BEY.-Last week, a gentleman resident in the neighbourhood of Haddington, visited that town for the annual collection of his accounts. Having received about £500, he entered a shop there, and upon examining his money, missed the sum of £100. He immediately retraced his steps, and chanced to encounter a group of children in the street, engaged in the examination of what seemed to be pictures, but which, upon a more narrow inspection, he found to be his missing notes, each of £90 value. They were of course recovered from the children, who reepived in return a small gratuity .- Edinburgh Register.

LORD PALMERSTOR'S IRISH ESTATES .-The Sligo Journal says, Mr. Stewart, of the firm of Stewart and Kincaid, has returned to Dablin after a tour of inspection over the properties of Lord Palmerston and other gentlemen, to whom this eminent firm are agents. Upon Lord Palmerston's property, this county, suormous improvements are being carried out under the local direction of Edward Smith, Enq , which must result in great benealt to the tenantry.
