A Physician's Testimony for Labatt's Ale

"We find that the ale uniformly and well agreed with the patients, that it stimulated the appetite, and thereby increased nutrition. The taste, likewise, is always highly spoken of. In nervous women, we found that a glass at bedtime acted as a very effective and harmless hypnotic."—SUPERINTENDENT OF LARGE U. S. HOSPITAL.

TO OUR READERS.

The "Canadian Churchman" trusts that its readers will, before making purchases, kindly look through our Advertisizing Columns with the view of supporting those houses that advertize in the "Churchman."

Mr. Alexander Elder, shipowner, who has resided at Southport for some years, has offered to bear the cost of rebuilding the west front of Holy Trinity Church, estimated to amount to £3,000. This will enable the rebuilding of the church to be completed, and is the crowning gift of a remarkable series during the past fifteen months in which the sum of £17,000 has been promised.
