

Judges may arrange as to rotation for duty.

8. The Judges of each Election Court may arrange among themselves by what Judge or Judges thereof any duty assigned to the Election Court or a Judge thereof shall be performed.

Allowance to Provincial Judges for duties under this Act.

9. Every Judge of any of the Provincial courts who, under the provisions of this Act, becomes liable to be called upon to try any election petition, or to act as a member of an Election Court, shall receive an allowance for the same of one hundred dollars for each election petition tried by him, in addition to his salary as such Judge of a Provincial court, and a further allowance of ten dollars per diem for each day during which he is necessarily engaged in the trial of an election petition, or at a sitting of the Election Court; and

And to Judges ad hoc.

2. Every Judge ad hoc under this Act shall receive a like allowance of one hundred dollars for each election petition tried by him, and a further allowance of ten dollars per diem for each day during which he is necessarily engaged in the trial of an election petition, or at a sitting of the Election Court;

How payable.

3. And such allowances shall be paid out of any unappropriated moneys forming part of the Consolidated Revenue Fund of Canada on the report of the Auditor General that they have been claimed and are due.

Presentation of an Election Petition.

10. A petition complaining of an undue return, or undue election of a member, or of no return or a double return, at any election held after the coming into force of this Act, may be presented to the Election Court by any one or more of the following persons:

(1.) Some person who was duly qualified to vote at the election to which the petition relates; or

(2.) Some person claiming to have had a right to be returned or elected at such election; or

(3.) Some person alleging himself to have been a candidate at such election:

And such petition is in this Act called an election petition.

The same.

11. The following enactments are made with respect to the presentation of an election petition under this Act:

Form and allegations of petition.

1. The petition may be in any prescribed form; but if, or in so far as no form is prescribed, it need not be in any particular form, but it must complain of the undue election or return of a member, or that no return has been made, or that a double return has been made, or of matter contained in any special return made; and it must be signed by the petitioner, or all the petitioners if there are more than one:

When to be presented in ordinary cases.

2. The petition must be presented not later than thirty days after the day of publication in the Canada Gazette of the receipt of