Scanlon—Buell
A very pretty home wedding took place at the residence of Mrs. Ellura Buell, Mallorytown, Tuesday evening, 24th, in the marriage of her youngest daughter, Miss Henrietta, to William Arthur Scanlon, M. D., of Algonquin, son of the Rev. John Scanlon of Prescott. The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. Mr. Scanlon assisted by the pastor of the Methodist church, Rev. F. S. Sprule, and the young couple were unattended.

Amid the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Gertrude Mallory, of Lyn, promptly at 8 o'clock the wedding party took their places, the bride being given away by her uncle, I. C. Algire of Athens. The bride and groom hastened to assure the clergyman without a tremor that they were thoroughly satisfied with the arrangement and in a few moments their life of single simplicity was nothing but a memory. Hearty congratulations followed and the intimate friends of Mrs. Scanlon, jr., helped themselves just as if bridal kisses were an ordinary diet.

Following the ceremony the guests, who were the immediate relatives and friends of the contracting parties, sat down to a sumptuous repast daintily served in the dining-room, and the toasts incident to such occasions were daily honored.

The presents were numerous and costly, there being a large array of silver and cut glass. The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl pendant. The house was tastefully decorated in the orthodox style with smilax, ferns, etc.

The happy couple left on the midnight train for Toronto and points west where they will spend a short honeymoon, after which they will return to Algonquin to reside.

The bride is well and favorably known in this vicinity and her young friends while regretting her departure wish her much joy and prosperity. Among the outside guests present were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stephenson, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Chapman, Ottawa; Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Betts, Brockville, and Mrs. James Stephenson, Brockville.

burst, his sisters, Mr. Tho. Moles, Athens, Misses Mary and Jane Kendrick of Soperion, and his brothers, Euseby and George Kendrick of Soperion.

For many years he has been one of main supporters of St. Luke's church, always taking an active part in every movement for the advancement of both the spiritual and material welfare of the congregation.

The funeral services were conducted in the church on Friday at 11 a.m. by the Rector, Rev. Fitzgerald, who supplemented the regular church service by a very able and practical discourse, taking his subject, Matt. V., 8—"Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God."

The church edifice filled to the entry and chancel was a testimony of appreciation of the usefulness of a long life well spent in behalf of the community.

The remains were placed in the Lyndhurst vault, from where they will be transferred to the beautifully situated God's acre overlooking the water of Lyndhurst Lake.

The sorrowing relatives have much to inspire and comfort them now in their hour of trouble in the example set them by their departed father and brother.

Humors
Come to the surface in spring as in no other season. It's a pity they don't run themselves all off that way; but in spite of pimples and other eruptions, they mostly remain in the system. That's bad.

Hood's Sarsaparilla removes them and cures all the painful and disfiguring troubles they cause. Nothing else cleanses the system and clears the complexion like Hood's.

Death of Peter Kendrick
The angel of death passing over the village of Lyndhurst on Wednesday, April 25th, called home the spirit of Mr Peter Kendrick, aged 77.

By the death of Peter Kendrick, the village of Lyndhurst loses one of its oldest and most highly respected citizens, and his loss will be sincerely mourned, not only by all residents of that pretty little village, but also by a wide circle of warm friends extending through the County of Leeds and Eastern Ontario.

The late Mr. Kendrick was a son of the late Major Kendrick and was born close to Bass Lake in the Township of Lansdowne Rear, where he lived until he attained manhood. While still comparatively young, he accompanied by his brother, removed to the shore of Delta Lake, two miles from Lyndhurst. There the two brothers prosecuted most successfully the pioneer task of carving out of the unbroken forest two large farms, making them into beautiful homes.

In the year 1862, the deceased married Miss Jane Kendrick of Forfar, who made him a helpful and loving companion until called home in 1875, leaving him the care of three small children, one son and two daughters. While in his 16th year, his only son followed his mother to join her in that upper and better world. About two years later, he married Miss Mary Johnson of Lyndhurst, who predeceased him by about two years.

About five years ago, feeling the infirmities of age becoming gradually too heavy for the duties of farming, he disposed of the farm he had developed from the wilderness and removed to Lyndhurst, where he with his wife purchased a beautiful residence and prepared to enjoy the competence which they had gathered. This was not to be, however, as Mrs. Kendrick passed away about three years after, since which time he has resided with his daughter, Mrs. Rooney.

Mr. Kendrick has always been known as an upright, progressive business man of indefatigable industry, coupled with the highest integrity. His cheerful manner and readiness to oblige all who required his valuable advice or assistance endeared him to all who knew him, while his word was always accepted as inviolable.

The immediate relatives who survive to mourn his loss are his two daughters, Mrs. N. E. Grahame, Portland, and Mrs. S. S. Rooney, Lynd-

The Increased Salaries
With a view to determining the effect of the new Education Act in rural sections, in respect to teachers' salaries, we have obtained from Mr. R. E. Cornell, Clerk of Rear and Yonge and Escott, a statement of the assessments of the various school sections. These figures and the minimum salary scheduled in the act are here given:—

ASSESSMENT	SALARY
No. 1—$21,425	$300
No. 2—54,785	400
No. 3—49,660	400
No. 4—32,690	400
No. 7—57,395	850
No. 8—31,230	400
No. 12—56,195	350
No. 13—14,500 (separate)	400
No. 14—26,470	300

We have not the total assessment of the union sections. The increase does not figure as large as some expected, but it will probably be found large enough to satisfy the ratepayers and not too high to meet the views of the teachers.

FROM A Point of View

There is no training so productive of good results for any young man or woman as that now given in the

Brockville Business College
Brockville, Ontario,

Spring Term just opened, correspondence solicited, Inspection invited.

W. T. ROGERS, Principal.

A few days ago B. W. Loverin of Greenbush took his rifle to the back field where he was working, hoping to get a shot at a flock of wild geese that frequented adjoining fields. His opportunity came, but the birds were on the wing and his shot failed to stop any of them. Just at this time, Ross Miller was climbing a fence about three quarters of a mile away when he was startled to hear something whizz by his head and strike the top rail. A moment later he heard the report of the rifle and on digging into the rail he succeeded in extracting the bullet.

On Monday last Robert Joynt died at the home of his parents, Newbyrne, aged 24 years. About four years ago, while visiting his sister, Mrs. (Dr.) Peat, in Athens, he was seriously ill with pneumonia, from the effects of which he never entirely recovered. Previous to his death he had been ill about a month. While in Athens, Robert made many friends, who learn with sincere regret of his death.
