AN EASY MARK.

The Londoners were a mark for the Reds yesterday. The very loose playing of the London team was most noticeable. Passes to first and stolen bases were quite common. London's star artist, Wiggs, was very wild and altogether pitched a poor game, while Thompson, for Chatham, was on his metal, and did splendid work. Hart, first baseman, did the twirling for London in the last half of the game. Score:

Hamilton, June 11.—Ragged fielding and hard hitting were the features of today's ball game. Saginaw's pitcher, Robb, was hit safely eleven times, and in the third inning the visitors had an awful case of rattles, three men scoring while the infielders were throwing the ball around. Hamilton had as bad an inning in the fourth, two errors and three misjudged flies that counted as two-base hits being responsible for five runs. Hamilton won by superior hitting.

A CORDIAL FAREWELL.

Send-off to Mr. and Mrs. Larkin.

THE POPULAR PASTOR PRESENTED—IT IS A GOLD WATCH AND HIS ESTEEMED WIFE WITH A PURSE OF MONEY.

Delicately decorated with fragrant flowers and foliage, beautified by bright buds and blossoms, and made attractive by the loving thought and artistic skill of the ladies of the congregation, the First Presbyterian church was last night the scene of a large congregational home circle who had gathered to extend a farewell to their departing pastor, his estimable wife and family, and to bid them a heart-felt God-speed in their new sphere of usefulness.

Rev. F. H. Larkin, B. A., Ph. D., has held the pastorate of this church for the past ten and a half years—years which have been characteristic of phenomenal progress and prosperity both spiritual and material. His influence, too, was not alone felt within the precincts of the church, but extended throughout the entire city, where he has won for himself universal honor, esteem and regard. In the departure of Mrs. Larkin, the City loses an earnest and beloved Christian worker—a lady who won true friends and gained a valued influence with all with whom she came in contact. Last evening's service was a fitting and impressive gathering, and a tribute to the high regard in which the sterling worth of the departing citizens were justly held.

THE INTRODUCTORY address was given by Rev. F. H. Larkin, in a brief and feeling introductory address alluded to the occasion of the gathering and paid a eulogistic tribute to Mr. and Mrs. Larkin, to whom they were there to bid an adieu to extend prayers and wishes for a continued and increasing prosperity.

A delightful musical program was then rendered under the direction of Mrs. John Cooper, the accomplished conductor of the choir. Mr. and Mrs. Larkin were escorted to the front of the church, and the musical numbers were interspersed with special intercourses and the extending individually of the good wishes of the gathering.

The appropriate and enjoyable program embraced the following readings, all of which were most exquisitely contributed:—

Antiphon—Praise ye the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

Violin Duet—Abenshagen, Henry R. McCaw, and Wm. H. Blackin.

Vocal solo—Good-bye, Sweet Day, Horace Davis.

Piano solo—Miss Mary Brackin.

Vocal solo—The Psalms, Claire Montfith.

Violin solo—Gavotte, H. R. McCaw.

Vocal solo—The Violet, Miss Ada Ross.

During the presentation of the program, the accompaniments were most acceptably played by Wm. H. Brackin, organist of the church. Miss Sarah McCaw and Miss Nellie Rhody.

FROM THE CONGREGATION.

At the conclusion of the reception and program, Mrs. John McKeeough, Mrs. S. T. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. K. Urquhart, Miss M. Todd, Miss M. Thomson, P. D. McKellar and Andrew Thomson made their way to the pulpit platform, where the chairman, Mr. Rankin, asked Mr. and Mrs. Larkin to join them.

On behalf of the church and congregation Mr. McKellar then read the following address:— June 11th, 1960.

To Reverend F. H. Larkin, and Dear Sir,—The congregation of the First Presbyterian Church feel that they cannot permit your departure after more than ten years of intimate personal intercourse and close Christian fellowship without marking this momentous epoch in the history of your life and that of the congregation by tendering you a tangible expression of the appreciation of the many people who have been blessed by your ministry and whose lives have been enriched by your presence.

For ten years and over you have proved yourself faithful in administering the spiritual needs of this congregation. These years have been eventful ones in the history of the congregation and fruitful of many good results. Many names have been added to the roll of membership and several have been baptized. Your connection with our congregation and notable for the complete consecration of their lives to the cause of the Divine Master, have passed away to join that vast silent majority in the unknown land. These have been succeeded by younger ones but no less devoted followers of Christ. It is also a notable feature in the life of the congregation that the young people have under your ministry assumed many of the duties and responsibilities of Christian work and business management in connection with the congregation which formerly fell almost entirely to the lot of their elders. In early years of your ministry we decided to abandon our old home which for many years contained the altar around which we assembled for the worship of God. This we did without regret, as it had served its purpose, but not without regret by some to which it was underlain by many tender associations. In leaving it and embarking upon an undertaking to erect a larger and more pretentious church edifice, it is not without a lurking fear in the hearts of many that an enterprise involving an expenditure of nearly $40,000 was a greater burden than the success of our congregation could successfully carry through, but the blessing of God was undoubtedly upon us and the sun of prosperity has shone upon us through all the years of the occupancy of our new home.

It is true there were times when our financial future seemed up to our eyes and then our hearts were heavy with care but these periods were few and brief and the clouds of our financial horizon were rolled away as the mists of the night dissolve before the rays of the morning sun.

And now in leaving us it cannot fail to be a gratifying knowledge to you that under your ministry our faith has been strengthened, our numbers increased, and our financial affairs placed upon a sound basis that we have every reason to rejoice that that years hence when our mortgage debt matures the provision which has been made for meeting it shall have removed every vestige of our debt and the congregation left untrammelled to devote their energies to the schemes of the Presbyterian Church.

Our hope and prayer is that you and those dear to you may receive the richest blessings of God in the new field you have chosen for your labours, that your usefulness may be increased, and that under your ministry the Seaford congregation may prosper even more abundantly than we have done.

On behalf of the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church, I am, yours faithfully, P. D. McKELLAR.

At the conclusion of the address Mr. Urquhart presented Rev. Mr. Larkin with a handsome gold watch and your household as it marks the pastor's monogram and the following inscription:—

"Presented to Rev. F. H. Larkin by the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church, Chatham, Ontario, June 11, 1960."

ADDRESS TO MRS. LARKIN.
Mrs. S. T. Martin then read the following address to Mrs. Larkin:—

Mrs. Larkin—The departure of your husband from our midst brings to a close the years of friendship and kindly association which have so pleasantly and rapidly flown since your arrival amongst us over ten years ago, and we are called upon to say farewell. It is not an easy or agreeable task. It is difficult. Our minds recall the unsparing energy with which you have devoted yourself to the interests of the congregation, your ready sympathy with its sorrows, your calm approval in its joys, the loyal support accorded by you to your husband and your unvarying cheerfulness and conscientious zeal in the Master's service, and we cannot avoid the regret that our experience of all these will now be but memories. But we need not here emphasize the element of sadness which we cannot avoid to feel from our thoughts, let us rather rejoice in the pleasant reminiscences which are still ours and will abide.

Our assurance is that the years you have spent with us have been for you also happy years, may we then minimize the sadness of farewell by an expression of our unceasing sorrow by the prayer that in the new field into which your devoted husband has been led, even fuller joy and wider usefulness may await you.

We trust that you will accept this address and the accompanying purse now presented to you as a token of the deep and abiding esteem in which you are held by all the ladies of the congregation.

Chatham, Ont., June 11th, 1960.

Mrs. McKeeough then presented Mrs. Larkin with a purse containing $70 in gold.

AN ADDRESS FOR BOTH.

On behalf of the Christian Endeavor Society Miss Minnie Thomson read the following address:—

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Larkin,—Ten and one-half years ago, when first you became our pastor, most of the members of the Christian Endeavor Society were boys and girls, so that we have grown up from adolescence to the vigor of manhood and womanhood under the influence of your instruction and example. At no stage of life are people so open to influence, and so we, whose characters, ideals, and aims have been moulded under your guidance, feel that we must testify, now that we are about to be separated, to our appreciation of the blessing you have been to us.

As we cast our minds back through the years that are past, and think of the many young men who, fighting still with the fire and faith which they have gone from us to all parts of our country and the United States, and in all occupations, we feel how potent and far-reaching has been your influence, and we look with pride at the fact, that, though a few may have fallen from the ranks, yet the majority are now active and energetic soldiers in Christ's great army, fighting for the cause of truth above all things, and penetrated by a love and zeal in the service of God.

In your social life, your frank, genial, unaffected manners have always made you pleasant and attractive companions. We have always felt that your home was a centre at which we could always spend a delightful and instructive hour.

In conclusion we wish you and your family to accept these little gifts so that as often as you use them, your minds may go back to the old pastorate, and the picture of many faces, that will always remember you with admiration and love, may be brought back to remembrance, and cause a pleasant thought of the times that have been left behind.

Miss Minnie Todd presented the pastor and family with a case of silver spoons, each of which was engraved personally to a member of the pastor's home circle.

MR. LARKIN'S REPLY.

Rev. Mr. Larkin, who was deeply moved, made an impressive acknowledgment. He said there were perhaps times in life when it was comparatively easy to express the sentiments of heart and mind, but this was not such an occasion to him. He felt his utter helplessness to express the gratitude of Mrs. Larkin and himself for the goodness extended to them. It

Special Sale Straw Hats

We had a word to say to you on the subject of premiums and prizes and the common bonus the other day.

Our point was that none of these things are given away. The cost of all premiums becomes a part of general store expenses and that cost is spread over the retail price of the goods and you pay it.

We do, now and again, give you such premiums as a lower price than we would ordinarily put on goods.

Such an occasion is at hand and we have put on sale 18 lines of Straw Hats at about 60 per cent of their value.

They run like this

Men's fancy braid straw Hats, with 3 inch crown and 2 inch brims, navy blue and black silk bands, leather sweat, regularly worth $1.25, sale price.....50c

Men's rough braid Straw Hats, with plain navy and black silk bands, and navy satin polka dot bands, regularly worth $1, sale price.....75c

Men's fancy Straw Hats, with 3 1/2 inch crown and 2 1/2 soft roll brims—very comfortable and stylish hat, regularly worth $1, sale price.....75c

Men's fine Straw Hats, plain brims, 3 in. crowns, navy and black silk bands, 1 1/2 inch stiff brims, fine leather sweat, regularly worth $1.25, sale price.....$1.00

Men's rough braid Straw Hats, with plain navy silk bands, 3 in. crown and 2 in. stiff brim, very stylish, regularly worth $1.50, sale price.....$1.00

Men's extra fine, fancy Straw Hats in white with plain navy band, and in light brown with self bands, very light weight and smart shape, regularly worth $1.50, sale price.....$1.00

Every one of these hats was bought direct of the maker in New York and we got a discount for cash. Besides the jobbers profits were cut out. We got another discount for big buying for three stores. The trouble is the buying was, we are afraid, too big.

That's the kind of premium, prize and bonus we believe in. We give you good goods, correct in style, and two discounts, two profits and part of our own. Look at the windows and prove the proposition by paying cash.

Your influence in this pulpit has been so great that we look with sorrow, almost dread, that soon your voice is to be heard, here no more. We always felt that we were listening to a scholar and student, filled with the desire after truth above all things, and penetrated by a love and zeal in the service of God.

In your social life, your frank, genial, unaffected manners have always made you pleasant and attractive companions. We have always felt that your home was a centre at which we could always spend a delightful and instructive hour.
