KNOCK-OUT DROPS

They Were Given to Jennie Bosschier in Patterson, N. Y.And Killed Her—The Murders and Their Accessories, a Cabman, Under Arrest.

New York, Oct. 4.—To-day's developments show that the circumstances surrounding the death of Miss Jennie Bosschier, of Patterson, N. Y., from one of the most remarkable and revolting crimes which has ever brought to light in this section. The brought the five persons more or less concerned in the affair in custody.
From statements and confessions made they have been able to trace the course of the girl from 8.30 on the evening she met her death and the travels of her body after she was killed.
The body was found on the 11th of September. Shortly after 8 o'clock Miss Bosschier passed Kent's drug store at Patterson and near it met Andrew Campbell. There was a short conversation and then the pair walked down Main street. It is alleged that on the route they were joined by George Kerr, Walter McAlister and William Saunders. They entered Christopher Saunders' saloon. Here drinks were served. Finally one of the men telephoned for a cab and August Schultze responded. This cabman has been the main source of the police's information and has given a detailed story of what occurred.

CABMAN'S STORY.
It was in the neighborhood of 10 o'clock when the four men lifted the partly unconscious form of the girl into Schultze's rig. It is alleged that after the hackman had been called, one of the men asked for another round of drinks and into that served to the girl, poured the contents of a vial, containing a species of knockout drops. The men directed the driver to take them to a roadhouse, but they found the place closed and repeated rapping produced no response. The party then started back toward the city.

In a lonely spot the hack was stopped and the girl lifted out and laid on a blanket by the roadside. In what followed the hackman and one of the four, it is said, had no part.
The story is too revolting to describe.
The hackman claims that he did not leave his seat on the cab. He is unable to say whether the girl was alive or dead when she was lifted back into the cab.
He remembers that he was told to drive down beside the river bank.
Here the girl, apparently lifeless, was lifted out of the cab and her head and face bathed with river water. After a long time spent in trying to revive her, the men held a consultation. Their victim was again lifted into the cab and the hackman ordered to drive like mad to Dr. Wiley's house.

THE GIRL WAS DEAD.
Dr. Wiley was not at home and the party hurried to the residence of Dr. Townsend on Patterson street. The physician arrived and tried to come down stairs and give immediate attention to a woman who had been injured. He was told not to wait to dress. He slipped on a bath robe and went out to the carriage door.
He felt the girl's pulse and then stepped back, saying his services were not needed, as the girl was dead.

One of the men cursed the doctor for a fool and commanded him to revive the dead. The doctor turned and started back into the house. The men changed their demeanor and begged him to do something for the girl. Then the doctor again assured them it was useless, as the girl was dead and beyond help. The carriage then drove away, but came back in a few minutes, and again the men urged Dr. Townsend to resort to anything to bring the girl about. He again explained that the girl was beyond medical aid. The doctor was offered any amount of money if he would try, but persisted it was useless for him to try, as death had come long before.

DISPOSING OF THE BODY.

The carriage then drove away.
There was a consultation among the men. One wanted to take the body back to his house and leave it there.
The other three refused to consider this and insisted upon dropping the body upon the roadway. It was finally decided to drive out into Bergen county by way of the Thirty-third street bridge. When the triple attack upon the unconscious and perhaps dead girl was made a portion of her clothing had been lost. When the carriage left the scene of the crime one man had a portion of the clothing in a pocket of his coat and another had the remainder of the garments. When the car was within a few minutes of bathe the girl's face and head her combs and hairpins had been removed.
These were in McAlister's pocket.
Portions of the garments dropped from the carriage were picked up by the combs bridge into the Passaic River. The carriage was then driven a short distance along the road into Bergen county. The spot was decided upon as a good place to drop the corpse.
The body was dragged out of the carriage but just then a wagon was heard approaching and one of the men hurried the body back into the cab, exclaiming:

"For God's sake, drive on; here comes a carriage."
The cab went on until the dark spot near Alyea's mill was reached. McAlister caught the girl by the feet and dragged them outward. Another of the men lifted the shoulders and the hips reached the mill. The air-condition which threw the Bergen county authorities off the scent was not foreseen by the men disposing of the body. The hackman received $10 for his night's work. This was paid by McAlister.

Mr. W. E. Ripstein is having extensive repairs made to the Biddle building, corner of King and Fifth streets, putting in waterworks and modern conveniences, and otherwise putting the property in good condition. There are a number of good rooms to rent in this building, which can be secured on application to Mr. Ripstein.

A CLAIM FOR DAMAGES.
The city solicitor was served with a notice of action against the corporation for $2,500 damages on behalf of James and Sabina Stevens. The notice of action sets forth that on March 11 last, Mrs. Stevens fell on the icy sidewalk on the south side of Murray street, near the junction of Adelaide street, and fractured her thigh, as a result of which she is crippled and disabled for life. J. B. Rankin, Q. C., is acting for plaintiffs.

A CHINESE OFFER.

Will Own up to All Her Great Faults.And Will Pay For Them—No Proposal to Punish the Guilty, However.

Peking, Oct. 24.—A preliminary convention between China and the combined powers has been proposed by Prince Ching and Li Hung Chang. It is as follows: Article 1. Laying siege to the legations of foreign ministers is a high offence against one of the important principles of international law. No country can possibly tolerate such a thing. China acknowledges her great fault in this respect, and promises that it will never occur again.

Article 2. China admits her liability to pay an indemnity for the various losses sustained on this occasion, and the powers will each appoint officials to examine and present all claims for general consultation and settlement.

Article 3. As to future trade and general international relations, each power should designate how these matters should be dealt with, whether the old treaties should continue, or new conventions should be made, slightly adding to the old treaties or cancelling the old treaties and negotiating new ones. Any of these plans may be adopted, and when China has approved them further special regulations can be made in each case, as required.

Article 4. This convention will be made by China with the combined powers to cover the general principles which apply alike to all. This settled, the foreign ministers will remove the seeds they caused to be planted in various parts of the young yamen, and then the yamen ministers may go to the yamen and attend to business as usual. And, further, each power should arrange its own special affairs with China, so that separate treaties may be settled in due course.
When the various items of indemnity are all arranged properly, or an understanding has been come to about them, the powers will successively withdraw their troops.

Article 5.—The troops sent to China by the powers are for the protection of the ministers and no other purpose, except when the negotiations begin for treaties of peace, each power should declare an armistice.

Lord Roberts, it is reported, will remain in South Africa until the end of the year in order to settle several questions regarding the administration of the Orange River and Transvaal colonies.

The Price

Has always been an attractive feature of this store and at present in connection with the Carpet Department it is doubly so. No consideration of cost has hindered the price paring knife from cutting far below regular values for the Special Sale which is now so successfully started. There has been no selection of the slower selling patterns, but every roll of carpet in the department has suffered in the slaughter. A glance at the following figures will cause you to come and see.
