STORE ROBBED

J. H. Bogart's Queen Street grocery has once more been "touched." Although the proprietor is one of the "famous" and best liked merchants of the Maple City, his store is more burglarized than any other in the city. On Saturday night, two cigar boxes, containing cigars, were purloined. Mr. Bogart thinks while they were so busy at the front part of the store. One box contained $10 in the copper money and the other about four dollars. The boxes were on top of the office desk right by a window, which was partly open and a tall person could reach through from the outside and get them.

There is no clue whatever, to robbery.

RIGHT SMART PAGE

Caleb Montgomery has a pretty fast horse. There are those who allege that Caleb's horse can do a three-minute start, hatched to a bug. Now Queen Street is a pretty fine speedway and even the horses like to let out a couple of notches on that street. His friend Carter was with Caleb and the two just had a glorious time. At the height of the excitement Carter fell out of the rig. He blames it on Mr. Montgomery's fast horse. He says if the animal had not been trying to lower Lou Dillon's record he would never have fallen out. The horse went so fast that it rolled the buggy right from under him. During the fun, the delivery wagon of William Anderson, was damaged. Mr. Montgomery called at the police station this morning to settle. Jas. Dolson, police officer, had seen his fast drive.

Canadian Girl Suicide.

Orange, N.Y., Aug. 15.—Miss Ethel K. Pardee of Norval, Ont., 25 years old, who was employed by Mrs. Thomas A. Edison, wife of the inventor, as a governess for the Edison children, committed suicide yesterday at the residence of Mrs. Annie G. Miller, by turning on the gas. She worried much in the discharge of her duties as governess. Three years ago anonymous letters were received by the Edisons, containing threats to kidnap the children, and Mrs. Edison frequently cautioned Miss Pardee to be careful. Miss Pardee was of a nervous disposition. Letters found in her room indicated that her father, a Canadian clergyman, died last winter.

CHICAGO WAS CHICAGOED

The majority of the crowd had never before seen the Indian game played. The curiosity of the spectators soon turned to that of keen interest as the twenty-four hard athletics lined up for the face-off. The Canucks proved their superiority over the local boys in all departments of the game, their teamwork standing out particularly strong. Furthermore, their condition seemed perfect, whereas several of the Calumets were still on the ailing list as a result of their recent hard game at St. Paul.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

The Tecumseh, of Chatham, Ont., entertained thousands of early comers at the White Stockings-News baseball game yesterday by defeating the Calumets of Chicago 8 to 2 in a well played increase match. The Calumets were outplayed both in the attack and in the defense, and the weakest spot of all was in goal, where Collins often left his net absolutely unprotected while trying to do work that belonged to his point or cover point. The visitors profited by this several times.

Tecumseh had things all its own way in the first half, scoring four goals to the locals' nothing. In the second half the Calumets braced a bit and put two balls in the net, but the visitors added four to their total before the finish. The great crowd, only a small part of which had ever seen the Canadian game played, took to it like small boys to a deserted peanut stand, and liberally applauded the good plays.—Chicago Tribune.

The following were the players: Tecumseh—Robinson, O'Doherty, Francis, Pickering, Elliott, Quenel, Grace, Angus, McBride, Stewart and MacFarlane.

Chicago—Young, Collins, Morrison, Beaton, Stevenson, Mulligan, Rubidge, Hayes, Barrett, Sewell and Culbertson.

Referee—D. Baker.

Goals: O'Doherty—MacFarlane 4; Stewart 2; Grace 2. Chicago—Culbertson and Sewell.

LONG SHOTS.

Chicago is all right.

The Tecumseh go back to Chicago in three weeks to play another game.

Nothing was too good for Chatham.

Chicago has got a good team and they are all gentlemen and gentlemanly players.

Robinson (as he looked at a sky scraper—What building is that?)

Chicago man—The post office.

Robinson—Gracious, it would take a fellow all day to go in there and get his mail.
