We make on charges against anybody, we do not wish to make the slightest insinuation against any body, but we advise the lib- erals to watch these specially appointed returning officers, that is, the officers who are not either sheriffs or registrars, as a cat would watch a mouse. MERCIER VICTORIOUS. That nothing succeeds like success has become a proverb. No one can doubt that the success of the liberals in the Quebec elections had an important effect upon the Ontario elections, or that the result in Ontario in its turn strengthened the hands of the supporters of Mr. Mercier. Now that Mr. Mercier has suc- ceeded in ousting his adversaries from office, not Ontario alone, but the whole Dominion will be influenced. Mr. Mercier's victory is important in a Dominion sense, not only because it takes the patronage of the government and the prestyge of official position out of the hands of the friends of Sir John Mac-	One of the first acts of the liberal leader of the New Brunswick govern- ment was to prepare an act greatly ex- tending the franchise. If he had not been balked by the tory majority in the legislative council his bill would have become the law of the land before the present dominion franchise law. Under that bill the qualification was lower than under the dominion act, so that if the liberals of New Brunswick could have had their way the franchise in Parlia- mentary elections would have been lower than it now is, for Mr. Blair's bill would, in the absence of an act of parlia- ment, have applied to the dominion elec- tions.
