CALGARY HORSE SHOW

Calgary, Alta., April 5—The annual Provincial Horse Show, the Pure Bred Cattle Show, fat stock and auction sale, of pure bred bulls, the largest combined show of its kind in all Canada, was opened this morning in Victoria Park at 10 o'clock. Promptly at that hour Premier Rutherford, deputy minister of agriculture for Saskatchewan; W.J. Black, president Manitoba Agricultural College, and Duncan Anderson of Orillia, judges in the light and heavy horse classes and cattle breeds respectively, commenced their duties in the large show ring on the grounds Before these gentlemen considued their duties, they will be obliged cattle and three carloads of other stock for No. 1 Northern; Nos. 2 and 3 Norentered for competition. They have breeding all right and show classy style, but their appearance also shows that more attention is paid to older animals and that the younger ones are allowed to shift for themselves to a greater extent than is good for their future. In other words, winter feeding and more care would add largely to the value of the animal in maturity. All breeds are represented. In the horse classes, 142 different breeders and owners have made entries in the following grades: Clydesdales, Shires,
