She was tying the baby's bonnet strings, while the older child, though ompanions, Needle Cases, etc. hardly more than three or four years old, was trying bravely, though not her coat alone.

A busy little waitress who was scurrying past with a tray piled high with dishes, saw the child's predicament, stopped, set the tray down and helped wriggle the obstinate coat on.

The little scene took place in a restaurant where the waitresses do not receive tips, so I knew that there could be no ulterior motive for the deed, and I looked instinctively towards the mother for the pleasure of seeing the radiant smile that I felt sure must acknowledge such a gra-

Each of the chief or-gans of the body is a link in the Chain of stronger than its weakest organ. If there is weakness of stomach, liver or lungs, there is a weak link in the chain of life which may snap at any time. Often this so-called "weakness" is caused by lack of nutrition, the result of weakness or disease of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutritis weaknesses of the stomach and its allied organs are cured by the ise of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. When the weak or diseased stomach is cured, diseases of other organs which seem remote from the atomach but which have their origin in a diseased condition of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, are cured also.

The strong man has a strong stomach. Take the above recommended "Discovery" and you may have a strong stom-

North Pole Dinner at a Cost of $10,000

George Kessler Gave Wonderful Ban quet at Hotel Savoy, London.

London, Dec. 27.-George Kessler on Friday night, gave another wonderful dinner at the Savov Hotel. 1 was a less costly affair than his gon dola banquet four years ago, on which he expended $25,000. Seventeen men and seventeen women on Friday had only $10,000 spent on their entertain ment, but they fared pretty comfort ably even at this figure. The North Pole was the motive, and a hundred men worked night and day since the order was given for the dinner two days ago to convert the Winter gar den into a semblance of Arctic waste Icebergs enclosed the scene, and icicles hung overhead. The prow of the ice-bound ship fill ed one corner, and polar bears glar ed at the guests from ice crags. The centre of the garden was occupied b a huge oval table fixed up so as t represent a block of ice, on which the viands were spread. Among the decorations were white chrysanthe mums, surrounding a centrepiece re presenting Peary and Cook approach ing a big nail from opposite sides The waiters were booded. Eskimo fashion, and were clad in white bear skins, and as the temperature was anything but Arctic they perspired prodigiously. Prominent vaudevilli ans performed, made up as Eskimos The women guests displayed gorgeou jewels. Mrs. Kessler especially glis tened with gems, notably pearls which might have ransomed a million

The Pope's Secretary.

Cardinal Merry del Val, pontifical secretary of state, who entered upon his forty-fifth year the other day, is by far the most interesting personality in the Pope's immediate entourage. It is not generally known that he is by birth a Londoner, for he was born in Gloucester Place, Portman Square, at a time when his father was secretary to the Spanish Embassy in London. He was educated at Slough and at Durham, and at an early age made up his mind to enter the Church. Going to Rome, he became a great favorite with Pope Leo XIII., who appointed him to his present position. He was the first to introduce shorthand, typewriters, and the telephone into the Vatican.

Cove Road Cabmen.

We have been asked to point out that there are only two cabmen on the Cove Road, Mr. Lawlor and Mr. Gladney, and that neither of these men was up before the Magistrate's Court on a charge of stealing a watch. In advertently the police report of a contemporary mentions a cabman of the Cove Road as being before the Magistrate on this charge, and Messrs Lawlor and Gladney wish to make their position clear to the public.
