Curiosity.

A child learns by asking questions. Men and women learn in the same upon the human bodies of no less way. Curiosity is the mother of the detriment of its mental development. "Don't ask too many questions," is the frequent injunction of parents to the child whose mind is being subjected to the impact of stimulating forces from every direction, and to whom questions are just as inevitable Assault British Flag. as the sparks which shower from the a British flag flying in front of the gations. All thought's a habit more or less, as in our groove we trot, and if we think about distress, distress will be our lot; and if our thoughts are full of fear, instead of hope and glee, they'll make our brief existence here a painful thing to see. When I fall sick of mumps or gout, my thoughts are dark as sin, until I force the dark ones out, and let the bright ones in: and I have found this can be done, however great the pain; when one is thinking of the sun he doesn't think of rain. When one is thinking of the hills where sunshine goes to waste, his thoughts are lifted from the pills that have a mildewed taste. At Home There's nothing like a Columbia

Grafonola to promote harmony at home-the kind of laughing, dancing harmony which mean's happy hours for everyone. It makes pure harmony because its straight tone arm allows the sound waves to develop fully and naturally. It makes gay harmony because the many exclusive Columbia artists comprise the leading stars of the stage in vaudeville and musical comedy. Come in. See and hear this beautiful instrument. We enjoy demonstrating the Grafonola just as much as you will enjoy hearing it. Come in today.

Yours for harmony
