17TH LEAGUE MATCH.
C.E.L. vs. Terra Nova. Result: Draw.
One Goal Each. Played on
Llewellyn Place, August
1st, 1922.

The attendance on Monday evening was a little better than at the previous game on Friday, but the game anticipated by those present was not played, the champions totalling having evidently become disorganized, and it does not need to look to see the cause. The players are able to keep their proper places without constant shouting, which sooner or later will disband the entire club. The teams lined up at 6.30 p.m. with one man short on the Terra Nova side, but he shortly appeared and made up the following:

Terra Nova: Parsons, McNelly, J. Kent, N. Vinnicombe, A. Marshall, J. Gemmell, Easterbrook, Soper, Pike, Forbes and Dowden.
C.E.L.: W. Pearce, A. Hayward, Adams, Cooke, Ayre, Golden, E. Reid, Carnell, Osborne, Worral and R. Wood.

Within 10 minutes of the ball being set in motion the T.N. boys had it all their own way. Nothing could stop Pike in his rush and he beat Pearce with a splendid shot. This was a thorough disheartener for the Institute, but the game continued fast and furious for some time, the Terra Nova goal being in danger often, but Parsons saved well, and once Worral found the net but was offside. At half time the teams crossed 1-0 in favor of Terra Nova.

The second half was in favour of the Institute, who secured several corners, and within 15 minutes of time Worral from a pretty bit of passing found the net and equalized. Fairly even exchanges continued for the balance of time, the game ending with the score one goal each.

Referee—T. H. Hayward.

Linesmen—Messrs. R. Forbes and C. Ellis.

NOTES ON THE GAME.

The Terra Nova team, collectively and individually played a dashing game, and are not to be intimidated as some would think. Pike is a solid wall when it comes to charging and had they a little more practice in passing will prove formidable opponents ere the season closes. Vinnicombe, like his brother of the "Star" is a dashing half and plays a good game throughout. Parsons, in goal is hard to beat, every muscle being strained to the utmost when defending, and he is perfectly rigid, hard as iron. The Institute will require to play more together—they made the mistake of thinking their opponents of little account as players. A lot of talk as to record goal-making and other things is not football, and men who desire to keep in good form should refrain from strong talk. You cannot expect two men to do the work of eleven. Another mistake made was the putting in of a comparatively young player, who hindered more than assisted. Better far is Wat Reids place had been allowed to remain vacant. Just a word to spectators, who, in their intense interest, are carried away and give loud expression to their views. To use a cant phrase "you are not the only pebble on the beach" and others about are as free to an opinion as you are, but refrain from making such a noise about it. Restrain the exuberance of your feeling, if not for those near you, for common decency sake. Football is not a prize fight, political or sectarian scrimmage, and language. Do not coach either team, for surely they know how to play by this time, and calm your actions to the orthodox method of applauding good play, or football, like cricket, will be a dead letter next season. Killed by the same means as that which restrains ardent wielders of the willow from playing in future.

Germans Hate French.

Writing from Paris to his father. Mr. Ralph Andrews tells that he has just returned from a business tour in Germany, where he found conditions very promising. Living in that country is very cheap, and for twenty dollars (gold) one can live like a millionaire. German hatred of France is more bitter than ever, says Mr. Andrews, and if the Germans were sure that Britain would not interfere, they would not hesitate to engage in another war with the French.

Household Notes.

Never throw away lemon rinds. Keep them on the sink and use to remove stains from your hands.

After removing husks from corn, wash silk off by holding under running water and rubbing with hands.

Put thinly-sliced carrots in a pan and brush each layer with melted butter. Bake slowly until tender.

To freshen vegetables, cut all ends of stalks and decayed bits, and leave in cold water for a few hours.

A batpin is excellent for testing vegetables and cakes when cooking. It does not bend as a straw does.

Stuff calves' hearts with bread-crumbs, sprinkle with hot buttered crumbs and season with salt and pepper.

The Bitter End.

They were young and it was even and the moon was shining. And they were young.

He leaned forward.

"Darling, I love you!" he breathed passionately into her tiny ear.

She gazed at him passively.

"You are beautiful, wonderful, lovely!" he cried, as the moonlight illuminated her classic features.

Her glance rested upon him and stood out clearly in the pale light.

"Will you marry me—be my wife?" he asked, with bated breath and shining. Hidden fires glowed in his depths.

And still her gaze was upon him. She opened her mouth to speak. Pearly teeth gleamed in the starlight moonlight.

"Ah! You're going to say 'Yes!'!" he muttered passionately, holding tight, his white hands. "You are going to say something!"

He leaned close, his head outstretched against the pale moonlight.

"I was going to ask why don't you wear a rubber band round your head to train your ears not to stick out?" she murmured thoughtfully.

(The end of a perfect evening.)

What Do You Think of a Fluid

That will draw roaches and ants out of every hole, crack, or crevice before killing them and not poison food?

That will kill bugs instantly and not leave an unpleasant odor?

That will knock flies off the wall and not harm paint or paper?

That will keep the bedroom, kitchen, or veranda, clear of flies, mosquitoes, etc., for several hours after a few sprays?

That will take fleas off a dog and not harm the dog?

That will destroy chicken lice without any injury to your stock?

That applied in small quantities to the exposed parts of the body will insure you from Mosquito bites?

That as a general disinfectant is stronger than the ordinary carbolic solution.

THAT FLUID IS

SAN-O-SPRAY.

No insect can live where San-O-Spray is used. Yet San-O-Spray is non-poisonous to human beings and can be used with perfect safety in pantry, kitchen, dining-room, bedrooms, more over San-O-Spray has an agreeable and delightful odor, removing all foul or unpleasant odors.
