The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies Aid of St. Paul's church, will be held in the church parlor on Thursday afternoon this week, at 3 o'clock. A full attendance is requested.

became infected somehow when a thistle point was removed with a needle.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Wickett, of London, spent the week-end with the former's parents, Mr and Mrs. John Wickett.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Connor returned home on Saturday night after spending the past few months at their farm, Goodwater, Sask.

An electric motor has been installed at the Baptist church to furnish power for the large organ. It works perfectly.

H. M. Hambidge is building an addition to his big ice house: just east of town, and will put away more ice this year than ever.

Miss Alice Irwin, of Aylmer, and Mr. Thomas Doolittle, of Mt. Salem, were quietly married at the Luton parsonage, by Rev. Kitley, on Monday, November 25. They will reside on the groom's farm near Mt. Salem.

The Interurban Motors Limited have given up their lease of the Mansion House building which they have used as a station here, and their office will in future be at the Brown House, and J. W. Rawson, the proprietor will sell the tickets after Saturday next.

The Men's Class of the Baptist Church has been re-organized and a new name chosen, The Men's Cheer up Class. The following are the officers appointed: E. H. Smith, President; Ern Millard, vice-president; Henry McConnell, treasurer; John Wilson, secretary; Harold Hambidge, pianist; Aquilla Porte, assistant. Rev. T. J. Mitchell is the leader of the class.

The prize lists for the Aylmer Poultry and Pet Stock Show are now printed and are being sent out by the secretary, Mr. F. D. King. The list is one of the largest and best sent out by any show and is larger than ever this year. A fair deal is always given to all and more entries are expected than ever. The prizes are good and should bring exhibitors from all over Ontario. The show this winter will be held on January 6, 7, 8 and 9 at the Town Hall.
