The Aylmer Express

12 PAGES

D. H. PRICE, Proprietor.

$1.00 PER ANNUM.

Whole Number 1126

For spring brid For spring brides there are many things here. The June wedding will be more elegant because of this stock. Nice, soft goods for gowns elaborate or simple, as preferred. Elegant or modest veils in profusion. Well Made

AYLMER'S Greatest Store

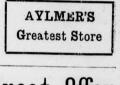

All Hail

Undermuslins These ready to wear arments for ladies have been made with a view to giving them long life. They're made of reliable ma-cerial, the seams are lurable, the trimming attractive, and the price right.

it to Remember These ready to wear kirts are made of the set bleached muslin. They are well made and trimmed with edg-ing that is meant to stand the wear. They are worth all they cost —and more—and will give comfort and plea-sure to the wearer. An extraordinary of-fering. fering.

nen we are showing the dward" Flowing End Bow novelty. This tie is having vell dressed you should wear ts," "our Collars,""our Ties." illy selected and the prices a you.

freat Offer. MER EXPRESS RMANDHOME and Most Practical Farm and mily Papers Published.

mily PAPETS FUDIESCA. that every one of our readers should to be egoed agricultorial and family be have perfacted arrangements can some that precised and in-rmal, Farm and Home, in connec-te AXLMEE EXPRESS and Homemade S, on remarkably liberal terms as . Lack of space forbids but a brief of the contents of Farm and Home.

| Volume XXII, No. 36   |  | Aylmer, Ontario, Thursday: June 6 1901 Whole Nu   |   |  |
|---|--|---|---|--|
| Baseball and tennis supplies at Caughell's.   | Carpets sewed and laid free of charge  | THE LAIDLAW-WATSON CO.,   | Avlmer's Comme  | ercial Interests and Manufac   |
| Mrs. and Miss Ethel Rutherford are visit-ing friends in Toronto and Coburg.           | when purchased at A. J. Anderson's.  | LIMITED.MANUFACTURERS OF THE BEST HIGH  | - Juner 5 Commit  |  |
| Rolled oats, no dust or dirt, $1 per hun-  | Miss Flo Gould.  | GRADE SHOES IN CANADA.  | A   | Industries.  |
| ired. White & Son's feed store.Mrs. Rev. Baker, of Preston, is visiting               | The best stock of turnip and rape seed at J. E. Richards.  | The reporter's next call was at thefactory of the Laidlaw-Watson  | The Hustlers for Trade a  | and the Principal Men of Business-A Bri  |
| er parents Mr. and Mrs. Showers here.Good girl wanted. Apply to Geo. Seers,           | Dr. Fear was in Toronto on business this week.   | factory of the Laidlaw-WatsonShoe Company, Lingted, on Myrtlest., who have made themselves famousby their brand of "Sovereign" shoesand justly so. On the right side of the |   | Comprehensive Review of the Merchants, N   |
| ansion house.   | Oil cake meal (choice.) $1.65 per 100 lbs   | and justly so. On the right side of the main entrance is the office and on  |   | ers, Hotels and Professional Men.  |
| Miss Grace Hoag who has been visitinger brother in Dubuque, Iowa, has return-         | G. A. Bingham & Co.Mrs. Graham visited friends in St.  | introducing myself was welcomed andmade to feel at home instantly. Dur-   |   |  |
| home.   | Thomas this week.  | iug our conversation I was surprised to   | AT A copy of this issue will be found at Brad-street's, New York, and Dunn's CommercialAgencies, Toronto and New York.              | W. J. MANN.Business methols are as much different Mr. Conn also conducts w   |
| Don't fail to see the carpets, wall paper,d lace curtains and window shades at A.     | Works.   | business, for since coming to Ayknertwo years ago, they have doubled their  | This week THE EXPRESS takes ad-   | Business methols are as much different Mr. Conn als conducts wand superior to the methods that obtaindwhen our fathers were at the helm as day is you can buy anything toom  |
| Anderson's.Canon Hill preached at both services in                                    | Big sale of wall paper on at A. J. Ander-son's. Lowest prices for latest and best                            | capacity, and from the pile of ordersI saw it looks as it they will have todouble it again soon, but before I got   | vantage of the opportunity to advancethe interests of Aylmer and to give a  | to night. Elucating himself to do businessup-to-date, the business man has educated If you want bargains in a  |
| rinity church on Sunday last, giving an accellent address on each occasion.               | designs.   | through the factory I readily under-stood the reason. The firm's motto is   | fresh impetus to live advertisers, by presenting to the public a comprehen-   | his customers as to where they can obtain that you use around the inthe best values and the newest ideas. W. Far See the fancy ge  |
| Don't be misled into ordering any inferior  | Mr. Thos. Sanders, formerly a residentof this place died at Whitewater, Wis., on                             | "The Better the Grade the Greater theTrade" and everything in the establish-  | sive review of the diversified manu-facturing industries, business houses,  | J. Mann is a dealer in dry goods, grocertes, glassware. See the washinboots and shoes, etc., and he keeps a splen-wringers, go-carts and 1   |
| inder twine, where you can secure theenuine gold medal at Wright & Allen's.           | Monday last.   | ment seemed to aim at the attainmentof perfection. To me it was surprising  | hotels and professional men. Aylmeris situated in the County of Elgin, 12   | did stock of each. One side of the store is Bargaings unprecedented devoted to dry goods, and includes a staple convince yourself.   |
| J. R. Woods, dentist. Crown and bridge  |  | to see the system, the care in the se-lection of materials, the exactness ofdetails of manufacture, and the close   | miles from St. Thomas, the countyseat, in the midst of one of the finest  | stock of dry goods and high class dressgoods, new silks, satins, lawns, etc. Thestock is well selected, and includes everyFACTORY  |
| ork and metal plates a specialry. Painless xtracting.                                     |  | scrutiny these goods get in making  | agricultural parts of Ontario.The M. C. R., the G. T. R. and the  | branch of the retail traite. The possessionof a large trade generally is shown by the Shakespeare says "he tha   |
| It is reported that Miss Tena McPhersonnd Herbert Rastall, both formerly of this      | by J. E. Scott. Get our prices before youbuy.  | While there are perhaps larger fac-tories in Canada, I question if there isone where the interior arrangement is  | Wabash Railroads connect with this town, giving it splendid competition   | fact that the stock which Mr. Mann carries in his soul is fit for strategerepresents the latest market ideas, and it is The great playwright kne   |
| ace, were recently married at the bride's ome at Wallacetown.                             | and the second | so complete; for once the order goesinto the factory it is like water going   | in those lines. There are a number offirst-class manufacturys here, whilethe town has an electric light plant,                      | has made Mann's store a great shopping and so do we in regard to a   |
| Mr. Clutton, of the Vienna Woolen Mills   | been visiting friends in town returne d homeon Monday.   | down stream-no going back-eachoperator doing their portion of work  | waterworks and a splendid fire depart-ment. Aylmer is one of the busiest  | fres. Sr ceries, including cauned goods. In magothcent six and seven o   |
| paying cash. and exchanging goods forrool at the old stand Charleton Block,           | If you want your lawn mower put in first-  | on it and passing it along to the next.Here light is in abundance, and light  | marts of commerce in the province.The business men are among the most   | boots and shoes his stock is very complete. Upright tiano cases, the moonly the best Canadian makes being handled and best constructed read aland prices reasonable. It will be to your jured. In appearance they a  |
| ylmer. A. D. MAGUIRE, Agent.  | class shape, leave word at W. A. Peckham's repair shop.  | is one of the essential points, as theold adage says, "the next finest workto watchmaking is fine shoemaking."  | prosperous and sound, financially, inthe country, while the education in-terests and places of worship rank                         | interest to see Mann's stock before buying. an upwright plano. There is for only being a year in business, Mr. from all reed organs has  |
| W. F. Charlton is making improvementsfront of his livery stable by boulivarding.      | W  | Next to the office and sample rooms isthe leather room, and here is to be   | among the best anywhere. The hotel  | Mann has certainly established a splendid similarity to that of a five or perfection is claimed, the l   |
| e block, which makes a vast improvementthe place,                                     | John H. Glover is selling so cheap.  | seen one of the greatest assortmentsof fine leathers found in Canada, as  | accommodation is among the best inthe province. Manufacturers desiring  | CRONK & PALMER. with quick and elastic touchthat the most alleggretto or   |
| For sale or to rent-That desirable pro-   | Mr. J. D. Leeson, who has been attendingthe Toronto Medical College is spending the                          | calfskin, kid or patent leathers are allthey manufacture, no heavy leathers   | a good location will find the town todeal liberally with them. A carefulperusal of this trade edition will repay                    | Associated with all growing and prosper-ous towns like Aylmer, are furnitare as on a plano. The ped  |
| erty of the late Mrs. W. A. Glover, cornerf King and Pine streets. For particulars    | holidays at his home here.   | whatever. Here I saw kid finer thangloves; calfskin as tough as porpoise  | you.  | waterooms Without furniture there would plated and exterior to thebe no housekeeping, while marriage would similar to that of a plate  |
| pply at Traders Bank.   | Queenston and Portland cement, the bestin the market, for sale by J. E. Scott.                               | shoe laces, and patent leather thatlooked nice enough to eat. While theL. W. Co. cut the best known brands  |   | and a second   |
| Mr. Lloyd Huffman, who has been sickith fever, at his home here for several           | Prices right.  | of leathers for the uppers, such asHeyd's patent calf, Ideal patent kid,  |   | and the second states and  |
| eeks past, is able to be out again, and is aining strength slowly.                        | Lawn mowers called for, cleaned, repairedand sharpened on short notica. Leave your                           | White Bros.' patent and enamel boxcalf, Titan and Common wealth chrome  |   |  |
| Wool wanted Mr. I. B. Huffman will  | orders with W. A. Peckham.Miss Schram who has been spending a  | calf, Burk's and Blumenthol kid, stillthey use just as great care with solestock which is really the foundation   |   | State All States and States  |
| ay the highest market price, in cash, forcool delivered at his warerooms opposite the | few weeks with her sister Mrs. Jas. Trim   | of shoemaking. In going through the   |   |  |
| ero House, Aylmer. Get our prices before lling.   | ville.   | factory the next room was the cuttingroom for the uppers. Here the same   |   |  |
| Miss Bessie McLean Howard is visiting   | F. H. Miller, D.D.S., dentist. Office overWhite Drag Store. Gold work-gold fill-                             | care of details shows up as each cutterexamins every inch of stock beforecutting, thus ensuring uniform goods.  |   |  |
| Pr. Backus, in Aylmer. Dr. Backus is onef the cleverest and most versatile of lady    | ings, gold crown and bridge work a specialtyPainless dentistry.  | The next room is the litting room,where the uppers are made; and you  |   |  |
| aysicians, who is always most welcome onar visits to TorontoSaturday Night.           | Now that London has finally decided up-  | talk about sewing machines—well Iguess I didn't know anything about a   |   |  |
| A situation wanted by middle-aged man,  | on an "Old Boys" home coming it is inline for Aylmer to follow suit. What's the                              | sewing machine before. I thought it was perfection to see a machine frill.  |   |  |
| work on farm or farm to work on shares.Il implements must be furnished. Can           | matter with Aylmer having one at fair  | tuck or hem, but here are machines (all Singers) that will sew two seams  |   |  |
| urnish recommendations. Address J. C.Burgess, Avon.                                   | New milch cow for sale. Must be sold.  | at once, trim their own work, tapetheir own work, and run so fast you   |   |  |
| The court of appeal for Aylmer passed   | Apply to J. B. Hambidge.   | would think they would jump topieces. They are all run by steam   |   |  |
| It very quietly this year, there not beingsingle appeal against the valuation of      | Church of Christ (Disciple.) Mr. Craw-ford, pastor of the church of Christ, St.                              | power and the operator only has totouch the breadle and away they go.I thought it was a waste to use so   |   |  |
| assessor Cann, which speaks well for thatentleman's tact and good judgement.          | Thomas, will speak morning and eveningnext Sunday. A cordial welcome is extend-                              | much silk to sew boots with, still, they have to buy it, not me. The next   |   |  |
| Bridgman is the only man in town making   | ed to all.   | room is the bottoming room. Here the shoes are lasted, (all hand work).   | N N   | [1] A. M. Martin and M. M. Martin and M. Martin and M. Martin and M. M. Martin and M. M. Martin and M. M. Martin and M. Martin andMartin and M. Martin andMartin and M. Martin and           |
| is sole business "INSURANCE." Life, fire, accident, plate glass, and marine. All          | Maple sugar. One lb. blocks. R. G. Moore.  | stitched and finished, and it waswonderful to see those stitching ma-   | · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·   |  |
| Canadian Co's. Rates reasonable. Office t EXPRESS printing office,                        | Mr. W. Bruce Anderson, after an absence of twenty-three years, in Mich.,   | chines, The Goodyear, they sew witha bent needle, on the same princip eas a custom shoemaker with his bent  | and the second                            |  |
| For sale, ten acres of land in Aylmer,  | Florids and Texas, is spending a few weeks   | sewing awl, but about one hundredtimes faster and better; every stitch  |   | TALBOT STREET, LOOKING EAST.   |
| outh of Clarence street. Apply at this fice.  | in town, visiting his mother, and renewingold friendships. His wite and family came                          | and I then readily understood why   | J. M. FARTHINGS.THE BUSY STORE. THE BARGAIN STORE.  | be a thing of the past. A furniture store the case, directly to the bell such as Cronk & Palmer's, (who only and nume with the meres   |
| Two able sermons were preached in Trin-y church yesterday by Rev. J. W. J.            | with him as far as Mich., where they arevisiting his wife's old home. Bruce looks                            | sewed. [met the Goodyean agent at   | THE BUSY STORE. THE BARGAIN STORE.Everyone who has ever visited Aylmer  | boon to a town like Aslman miners,) is a There are no strais to b  |
| ndrew, of Aylmer, the occasion being the  | well, and says he is enjoying his tripimmensely, and sees a great improvement                                | this point who was just setting up anew Lightening Heeling Machine, alsoa nailing machine which has all the   | gres away with the impression that it is oneof the busiest and best towns of its size to  | P.Z of towns twice the size which have Mr. Rowe also makes six a   |
| niversary of the opening of the church.he choir, under J. H. Jones, rendered          | in Aylmer. He may possibly remain north  | latest improvements and with them   | The stores are bright and there is an appear.   | to te seen at Cronk & Paimer's. You get having an organ with the s   |
| Don't neglect to spray your fruit trees.  | if he secures a situation that suits him,Cash for wool. The highest prices paid.                             | it is impossible to get a heel oncrooked or loose. Following on downthe line I saw trimmers, edge setters,  | ance about them that creates the in pression  | all the newest in furniture there, and most ectaves cannot be over-esreasonable in price. If you are in quest of are the most hands me res   |
| fall directions at Caughell's.  | G. A. Bingham & Co.  | and every operation nearing the com-  | ness men. J. M. Farthing, better knownas the "Three Farthings," is an extensivedealer in stanle and favor dry good solid            | mer's is the place to go for it. If you wanta fancy sideboard go there. If you wantgrade instruments. Dealer   |
| The Hessian fly has done a great deal ofamage in different parts of the country       | Following is from the well edited paper,The Hamilton Times : We have received a                              | ing room, and here they are dressed   | dealer in staple and fancy dry gooor, milli-nery, etc. In the interior of their store theimpression of brightness obtained partly   | styleh bed-room suite go there. For they are great sellers. Mr   |
| amaged in many quarters. The early  | book of 122 pages, entitled "A Meteor Kingby John A. Copeland, published at the office                       | nnished and boxed and sent to the packing room. Here they are consid  | ful display of goods, is in no way disturbed  | and furniture renairing of all birds down ing right pianos, samples of w   |
| lanted wheat has suffered most, that  | of The Harriston Tribune. It contains the  | and snipped over the entire Dominionfrom Atlantic to Pacific After I got  | branch of the ordinary retail trade. It in-   | Embalming done on the most scientific price lists write J. T. Rowe   |
| anted late having in many cases, escaped most entirely.                                   | story of King Richard III., as told by theshade of one of his contemporaries, a man                          | understand the secret of the ranidly  | largest stocks in town. In fancy high class   | their ability is the success met with They. The leading and next   |
| Follow up the first spraying of fruit treesith Bordeaux mixture. Now is the time      | who knew him intimately from his shildhoodto his death on Bosworth field. The in-                            | increasing trade, and while I haveworn Sovereign shoes in the past andthey have proved themselves the best  | In millinery all the latest styles in vogne are   | country to attend funerals cucted by Bishop & Matthew  |
| o do it Full directions at Caughell's.  | tention is to correct the Shakespearian ideathat Richard, Duke of Gloucester, was a                          | I ever had, now I know the reasonwhy and I will be content to wear  | to be seen, and a thorough practical mil-liner in the person of Miss Wood, in chargeof this department. Is ludies                   | CITY GRIST MILLS.  |
| We have received a series of six or sevenetters from the Provincial Board of Health   | murderous hunchback, "sent forth into  | them in future.   | of this department. In ladies' turnishings,hosiery, gloves, undrwear, parasols, waists,corsets, and notions, he carries a large as- | The industries affording special interestin an agricultural distict are those whichaid in producing the conputy's food In If you desire a fashionable  |
| on the subject of consumption, the first one  | On the contrary, according to the author's   | Croquet sets, at Caughell's.  | generally, is shown by the fact that the  | this connection we wish to mention promi-  |
| f which appears in this weeks' issue on an-ther page. These letters contain a vast    | and loyal gentleman, devoted to his  | F. H. Freedman, of Montreal, is visitingMr. W. Caron.   | latest market ideas. It is the general  | ner & Hilborn are the proprietors. This aim is to please their patrmill is thoroughly conjugad with a This and others ask for Bishon d   |
| which will be found valuable to every one,  | brother, Edward and in no way accessory tothe murder of his nephews. The tale is an                          | Hurry up and get your tomato plants 3doz. for 25c. China T. House.  | made Farthings' store a great shopping  | machinery and they arise a mining ber shop. Hot and cold bat   |
| and we hope they will be carefully read.They are written by Mr. Walter J. Brown,      | interesting one and it is well told.   | Mr. Chas. Bingham arrived home trom   | an enviable reputation as a leading business  | ronage, Their principal brand of flour isthe "New Century." They also do con-siderable shipping. They confine their tradeprincipally locally. Castom chopping isthe shipping the shippi |
| ormerly of this place.  | Strawberries today. China T. House.  | Victoria University, last week.Pierce & Co. will pay 67 to 69 cents per   | been faitful in his devotion to the heat  | done extensively here and feed of all kinds   them done up? Did you ey   |
| Big wall paper reductions at Caughell's.  |  | bushel for wheat delivered at their mill.   | interests of the town.YOUELL & WRONG.   | In giving this well known firm's name a where you will have them   |
| A new book of saored songs entitled   | the small sum of 75c. We will send toany address in Canada or the U. S., from                                | Fred Ashton has secured a situation withC. W. Ellis, of St. Thomas and removed  | Aylmer has long evioyed the reputation  | nizing their services in producing a first have shan order Why ser   |
| Battle Songs of the Cross," by John M.Vhite, the well-known singing evangelist        | now until Jan. 1st 1902. THE AYLMEREXPRESS the Family Handd and Washing                                      | his family to that city last week.  | goodly share of the trade in this immediate   | have not given them a call do so at your home by men who live have   |
| has just been published by William Briggs,of Tcronto. The collection contains all of  | Star and the two great premium pictures  | Dr. Angustine has moved his office intothe Deering machine building and will in   | a great deal to do in causing this greatitable  | held in high esteem in the community. Patronize those who nate   |
| Mr. Whyte's popular songs previoualy  | the War" Fither minture stands   | future look after both and Mr. Whyte willbe out on the road most of the time.   | state of affairs to exist. The name ofYouell & Wrong has gone abroad as bar-gain givers, and people come for miles to do            | J. B. HAMBIDGE.Another instantion of the second se          |
| a Boy Forget," "Will He Not Come Back."   | double the money. This offer is open only  | Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Pound and family   | are extensive dealers in day good & Wrong   | Another prominent business establishmentof the rown is the cold storage plant of J.B. Hambide, who is an extensive buyer ofdo not do much superior to  |
| "De Massa ob de Sheepfol," etc., and inaddition, fully one hundred entirely new       | limited, and cannot be promised after that   | O. Baker, for the past week have returned   | and carpets. In the line of high class dressgoods as well as staples, they may be said  |  |

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

CONN'S FAIR, PRICE BLOCK.

Aylmer's Commercial Interests and Manufacturing

The Hustlers for Trade and the Principal Men of Business-A Brief Sketch of the contents of Farm and Home, qualled for variety and excellence. monor its many departments may ed: the Farm and Garden, the Poultry Yard, Market Report, Talks the Gove. Pin Box, Fruik Cul-d the Gove. Pin Box and Home are the second the second the second try. Fa-hiens and Fancy Work, 'esturce. Farm and Home is pub-imonially, thus giving you 2 year, the whole making a volume pages, iteeming with all the latest inable information that experience an supply. No better pool of its an be offored than its enormous which extends into every state, r being read by no less than a mili-va.

arrangement we make for a llmit-ollowing liberal offer:

le Contrivances is a wonderfully It is adapted to the farm and a dad workshop, and to indoors as it covers the range of farm con-mappliances and fence, gates and act, is a combination, under one ce separate books. It tells how to 000 had/w appliances and labor is. It should be in the hands of d man. This book has never be-be trade for less than $200, which if the regular cloth editicn. We make this unparalled offer by normous edition for popular dis-is handsomely bound, illuminat-is y diffees, and contains no less as and 750 illustrations es and 750 Hustrations ||ay or fail to take advantage of his great offer, for never be-uch offered for so small a sum. 'e send both papers and the book, at the very low price above nam-

THE EXPRESS.

Aylmer, Ont,

FOR SALE

ng parts of Lots 26 and 27, in the be Township of Malahide, good gs, good orchard, con arch, is offered chesp ment. Apply to C. A.

of Teronto. The collection contains all of Mr. Whyte's popular songs previously published, including such favorites as "Can a Boy Forget," "Will He Not Come Back," to June 30th as the supply of pictures is "De Massa ob de Sheepfol," etc., and in addition, fully one hundred entirely new songs. Mr. Whyte's compositions have a this office after next Saturday. Any of our haunting cadence all their own. This new book of his, attractive alike in its title, contents and mechanical make-up, will no doubt prove a welcome visitor to Canadian homes.

Fodder corn. We have all varieties of ensilage corn, also Dwarf Essex rape seed, painting your hous Hungarian and millet. G. A. Bingham&Co' H. Glover sells tt.

tion with the EXPRESS is as follows. For the small sum of 75c. We will send to the U.S. from now until Jan. 1st 1902. THE ATLMER EXPRESS, the Family Herald and Weekly EXPRESS, the Family Herald and Weekly Christ in the Temple," and 'flome from the War." Either picture alone is worth double the money. This offer is open only to Jame 30th as the supply of pictures is limited, and cannot be promised after that. This office after next Saturday. Any of our present subscribers who are paid in adi the two pictures for 50 cents. Use the Herald and Star to Jan. 1902 and the two pictures for 50 cents. Use the Sherwin Williams paints when painting your house and save money. J. H. Clover sells it.

TALBOT STREET, LOOKING EAST. be a thing of the past. A furniture story such as Cronk & Palmer's, (who only recently amalgamated their busines,) is a boon to a town like Aylmer, where a large and well-selected stock is kept. There are and well-selected stock is kept. There are to a town like Aylmer, where a large and well-selected stock is kept. There are to a town like Aylmer, where a large and well-selected stock is kept. There are to a town like Aylmer, where a large and well-selected stock is kept. There are to a town like Aylmer, where a large and well-selected stock is kept. There are to a town like Aylmer, where a large and well-selected stock is kept. There are to a town stwice the size which have to the large and varied assorthern takes in a tory sideboard go there. If you disire a stylish bed-noom suite go there. For a styling in the line of furniture you can there are most hands me rigens made, and no stylish bed-noom suite go there. For a tory sideboard go there. If you disire a stylish bed-noom suite go there. For bo better than go there. Picture framing and furniture repaining of all kinds dome Undertaking and embelming in all branches; Embalming done on the most scientifi modern principuls. The best evidence to curve calls from the farthest end of the treceive calls from the farthest end of the country to attend funerals CITY GRIST MILLS.

BISHOP & MATTHEWS. The leading and most fashionable ton-torial establishment of the town, is con-cucted by Bishop & Matthews, who certainly have one of the most up-to-date barber elops in this part of the country. If you wish a shave as good as a barber was ever known to give, to bishop & Matthews. If you desire a fashionable hair cut or a shampoo, go there. None but thoroughly experienced workmen employed. Their aim is to please their patrons. Travellers and others ask for Bishop & Matthews' bar-ber shop. Hot and cold bathe in connection. ODELL & WILSON ODELL & WILSON

ODELL & WILSON Are the proprietors of the Little Jewel Laundry. Do you wear shirts? O you do, eh? But, by the way, where do you have them done up? Did yon ever try the Little Jewel Laundry, Aylmer? That's the place where you will have them done up in spick and span order Why send your gode to have them done up outside of your town, when you can get superior work done at home by men who live here, who pay taxes here and who help to support the town. Patronize those who patronize you. The Little Jewel Laundry people are residents here, and are entitled to the citizen's support in the laundry business. Give them a trial with your next bundle and see if they do not do much superior to what you are in the habit of getting. the habit of getting.

DR. J. R. WOODS, L D. S.

DR. J. R. WOODS, L D. S. Graduate of Haskell, Post Graduate Col-lege, Chicago, dental parlors in Traders Bank block, Aylmer, are finely fitted up, equal to any in the County of Elgin, incitiding all the latest apoliances and all other modern methods for the painless extraction of teeth. He makes a specialty of crown and bridge work. Artificial dentures furnished and satisfaction assured. He is one of Aylmer's meet prominent townsmen.

(Continued on pages 2, 5, 6, 8 and 11.)