BASEBALL.

LONDON LOSERS.

Special to The Advertiser.

Hamilton, July 8.—Hamilton fumbled and overthrew and muffed enough to lose any game in the contest with London today, but hard, safe hitting at opportune times gave them the game.

Mallot was laid up sick, and Roberts went to center, where he had three rank errors.

London got a long lead in the fourth. Only one safe hit, Reid's, was made, but misjudged fly balls gave three more, and Dean's and Roberts' errors cost five runs. Pitcher McCann's three-bagger, with two men on bases, and singles by McDonald, Dean and Phillips gave Hamilton enough to tie the score in the sixth, and McDonald's and Phillips' hits gave Hamilton a lead in the eighth.

London looked like a winner in the ninth. The first batsman up, hit for three bases. Sipp's single tied the score again with none out, and McDonald dropped Gunther's fly. Keenan hit to McDonald, and a triple play resulted. Hamilton won out in the ninth through Sipp's error and McDonald's two base hit. Score:

The Deserted Village.

The Military Camp Now a Thing of the Past.

Last Night a Noisy One—The Official Figures of the Recent Battalion Shoots—Notes.

The tented village on Carling's Heights is now deserted, and the red-coated, red-faced volunteers who have been brooding under a burning sun for the past twelve days, will no doubt cool off in their own homes. The final night in camp is usually a noisy one, and last night was no exception.

At a meeting of the St. Thomas Turf Association, Wednesday night, it was decided to pay off all liabilities and to assign members $150 each. There is a desire for $200, $130 from this year's meeting, and a like sum a legacy from other meetings.

Immediate Treatment of Fractures, Cuts and Sprains—Removal of a Fish-Hook—Care of the Injured.

The summer tourist has begun his wanderings, and, coupled with the fact, is the additional truth that the class of accidents which are peculiar to those of his ilk. Perhaps it is not correct to say accident collectively, but it is true that many accidents are of the nature of the minute bug, which flies either into his eye or ear. While in itself this may seem a trifling matter, it is highly important.

Then there is sunburn, the unpleasant result of contact with poisonous growths, the removal of the fish hook that becomes embedded in the finger or other portion of the body, possible injury to an artery, a fracture, a sprain, and ankle, head prostration and numerous other troubles that may fall to the lot of any of us who take up rural residence during the season.

There are remedies for all these, most of them simple enough, but the trouble is that the majority of us do not know what to do for ourselves when such evils befall, says the New York Herald.

In any case it would be well to call the attention of those contemplating travel especially to the camp accidents to which the tourist is particularly subject. In drawing larger home crowds than any team in the Eastern League circuit, recently released by Toronto.

Will Hoy's fielding this season has been better than ever before. The mule has saved many a game for the Reds this year by his remarkable fielding. His catch of Jake Stenzel's hard drive in the second inning, after a hard run with the ball, brought Hoy well-deserved applause when he came in from the field.

Joan leads the Brooklyn team in batting, with an average of .325, and is second in fielding, with .976.

Big Ned Morris, who was one of the crack left handers a few years ago, is now a Pittsburgh saloon keeper.

McKinn leads the New Yorks in batting, having an average of .341 in 15 games played. Davis comes next, with .329 in 36 games played. Bill Clark is at the top of the list in fielding, with .979.
