Sericus Rioting in Grenada.

MADRID, Nov. 3.—The populace of Grenada were greatly disappointed at Queen Regent Christian's refusal to visit the city with King Alfonso after great preparations had been made to receive them. The feeling of disappointment changed to one of anger, and to-day a large mob went about and destroyed the handsome triumphal arches that had been erected. They set fire to the Octroi offices and stood by while they burned. The mob Several Tugs Sent to Her Assistance-The Passengers Rate-Other Vessels Delayed. mob went about and destroyed the handsome triumphal arches that had been erected. They set fire to the Octroi offices and stood by while they burned. The mob then proceeded to the stand that had been erected for the use of the royal party during the unveiling of a statue of Columbus and completely destroyed it, together with a platform built for the public. The crowd them went for the leaders of the Conservative party and assailed them with stones, smashing the windows and doing other damage. While attacking the houses some one started cries of "Down with the Government,"
"Long live the Republic," etc. The cries were taken up by the mob, and for a time it looked as though a serious emeute would occur. The revolutionary cries attracted the attention of the Civic Guards and a body of them made a charge upon the mob, slashing right and left with their swords.
A number of rioters were quite severely injured. The mob made no resistance and all who could do so made off at the top of their speed. Thirty of them, however, were captured. In consequence of the disturbance the mayor of Grenada has resigned. The Minister of War, Minister of Public Works and Minister of Justice, who had arranged to go to Grenada to assist at the unveiling of the monument, have decided to postpone their journey as they fear a hostile demonstration. A third of the Grenada municipal authorities are Republicans. The absence of the Queen Regent is due to her desire to spare King Alfonso fatigue after his recent illness.

The civil governor of Madrid has resigned in consequence of recent rioting in the Prado, growing out of the authorities' prohibition of an open air concert. It is expected the mayor will also resign. The public is still highly excited because of the stoppage of the concert.

Monteal, Nov. 3.—The Allan Line steamer Sarmatian, which left here this morning, went ashore at Varennes, twenty miles down the river, during a snow storm. It is not known whether she has received any injuries. Several tugs have been sent to her assistance. The Sarmatian was bound for Glasgow with a general cargo. Other steamships, which are in the river, have had to anchor on account of the thick weather.

The steamer left her berth early this morning in charge of Pilot Alexis Gauthier. The weather was fairly clear, but she had not got very far before the fog rolled up from the southeast, and the weather became thick and heavy. The channel at that point is crooked and narrow and the current swit. It is almost impossible to anchor on account of the narrow channel.

The Sarmatian was heavily loaded with grain, apples, cheese and general merchan dise, besides 510 head of cattle. How much of this will have to be unloaded is hard to say.

The Workingmen's Amalgamated Council, which includes nearly all the labor unions of New Orleans, has given notice that unless the merchants and boss draymen grant the request of the labor councilfor acommittee to bring about settlement of the strike of the teamsters, a general strike will be ordered. There are from 15,000 to 20,000 organized in 61 different unions or trades. The strike will completely paralyze New Orleans. All the street or drivers will strike. Starvation in Mexico.

Zatecas, Mexico, Nov. 4.—The condition of the poorer classes of this city is extremely critical on account of the lack of food. The streets are filled with begars of every age and description. The Government is doing good work in relieving the suffering, but there are several thousand famine-stricken people notwithstanding this aid, and they are actually starving. A number of free eating houses have been established, but the capacity of such places is limited, and instead of free distribution of corn being made among the famine-stricken people here, as is being done in other parts of Mexico, the grain is sold at a fixed price and as these in need are without money to buy they must do without. Many of the poorer people have fled to the mountains where they are living on the prickly pear, maguey plant and messquit bean.

The London Masonic Temple Mort gage Case in Progress.

Thos. H. Furdem et al. Sue the Ontarie Loan and Debenture Company—Particulars of the Case—Judgment Roserved in the Chowing Gum Case.

SECOND DAY—FRIDAY.

When the Chancery Court resumed this morning Chancellor Boyd heard the argument in the case of Adams, Son & Co. against C. R. Somerville. He expressed it as his opinion that the label used by the defendant was not an infringement on the trade mark. He was inclined to think that repistration in the United States was not sufficient to protect the firm in Canada. However, he reserved judgment for the purpose of looking up authorities.

THE MASONIC TEMPLE CASE.

The next case called was that of Mr. Thos. H. Purdom against the Ontario Loan and Debenture Company. Mr. Purdom claims that the present directors of the Masonic Temple Company undertook with out consulting the stockholders to tie the temple up for ten years by a mortgage. The law, he says, reqvired two-thirds of the stockholders in value/to consent to this. He held $18,000, or nearly one-half of the value, and obtained an injunction restraining them until the hearing from proceeding further with their alleged illegal act. Mr. Purdom claims that there should be one director from each Masonic lodge on the board and not all the directors from one lodge. Since the sontiment was stirred up in connection with this matter one director had sold the greater part of his stock at par. He bought at 80 per cent.

A. O. Jeffery and N. W. Rowell, representing the Ontario Loan and Debenture Company, claimed that according to the bylaws the company had every right to make the mortgage in the way in which it was made.

Col. Lewis, when put in the witness box, said he held 200 shares fully paid up with Mr. Geo, Birrell in trust. As one of the plaintiffs he had not obtained the consent oil the widows and orphans he represented in bringing this action. The manner in which the stock had been allotted had never met with his approval. He thought that the different lodges should have been allowed to hold more stock instead of individual stockholders.

Mr. Fraser—Do you know of any lodge which would have taken more stock?

Col. Lewis—I think my own lodge, Kilwinning, would have taken more if they could have got it.

Col. Lewis—I think my own longs, Allwinning, would have taken more if they could have got it.

Thomas Purdom said he held $12,580 paid-up stock—$1,200 in trust and a proxy of $4,000 on stock held by Col. Lewis and Geo. Birrell. He was in Toronto when he received a telegram stating that the mortgage of $33,000 on the temple had been registered. He at once telegraphed A. O., Jeffery, solicitor for the loan company, not to close the mortgage until two-thirds of the stockholders had given their consent.
He received no answer, and when he returned to London he wrote to Mr. Jeffery stating that if the mortgage was closed he would take action to set it aside.
The mortgage would not have been necessary had the unpaid stock been paid up.
He thought that the mortgage was not in the interest of the stockholders. Stock amounting to $30,000 was subscribed on March 12 last. On that day Mr. Furdom dendeavored several times to see the stock subscription book of the Masonic Temple Company, but was each time unsuccessful.
He thought it was a midnight transaction
