ELECTION OF DELEGATES

Clerical and Lay Representatives to the Synods.

Generous Gift of a Layman for Diocese Work—Other Business of Synod Meeting.

The election of delegates at the Synod of Huron meeting yesterday resulted as follows:

FOR THE GENERAL SYNOD.
Clerical—Revs. Dean Innes, Archdeacon Davis, J. C. Farthing, D. Williams. Substitutes—G. C. Mackenzie, R. McCosh, W. Craig, Canon Richardson, G. E. Sage, R. H. Hicks, J. H. Moorhouse, Canon Hill, R. Hicks, C. Mackenzie, C. R. Gunne, Canon Young, Canon Davis, H. A. Thomas, T. G. A. Wright, J. W. Hodgins, W. A. Graham, Canon Richardson, Canon Hincks, S. F. Robinson, A. G. Dann, Canon Smith, J. T. Wright, J. W. J. Andrew, William Lowe, C. Jenkins, Lay—Messrs. M. Wilson, C. Jenkins, R. Bayly, Judge Ermatinger, F. T. Harrison, J. B. Lucas, J. W. Ferguson, T. W. Scott, S. J. Parker, J. Ransford, Judge Barron, J. F. Roberts, Sidney Smith, P. Holt, J. D. Noble.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON.

His lordship the bishop announced that a layman, whose name he had been requested not to divulge, but who was already known for his generosity, had handed him a check for $500, which he understood, was for the benefit of the diocese. The bishop stated that he would apply the same towards the mission debt.

A vote of thanks was accorded to the donor.

The discussion on the proposed canon on inadequate collections was resumed.

Rev. T. G. A. Wright took strong exception to the canon on the ground that it infringes the paternal of the bishop and the right of a clergyman to be judged by his peers. He claimed that a clergyman has no right to be summoned before he is presented, and that it is improper to hold a clergyman responsible for the people's defamations.

Mr. C. Jenkins, at some length, showed reasons for the passing of such a canon. The faithful carrying out of the rules was necessary to the success of the work, and the failure to make the collections had had a bad effect on the carrying on of the spiritual work.

Rev. W. Stout objected to the proposed canon on the ground that it will clothe the executive committee with an extent of power liable to be misused at any time. There was much need of improvement in this respect, and the interest and confidence of the laity must be secured in order to accomplish this.

Rev. C. R. Gunne held that if the synod had the right to pass a canon requiring collection, it had the right to provide the machinery to carry it out. The executive committee are members of the synod, and he favored the provisions of the canon as proposed.

Mr. J. T. A. Wright took strong ground against the canon as proposed. He pointed out that the canon placed the clergy in a wrong position; it leads to no good end, and cannot be carried out. The laity were responsible for the tenorities of the church.

Rev. Canon Brown was not an ardent supporter of the canon, and thought that it might be amended. He held that the lay representatives did not the clergy should be disciplined if occasion required.

Principal Dymond pointed out that the lay representatives are disciplined funds of various dioceses in the Dominion. That this synod without committing itself to any definite or final scheme, express its approval of the principles of the recommendation in the report (Provincial Synod Journal of 1935, pp. 94-5) adopted by the Synod of Canada, and deem it desirable to bring the matter to the attention of other dioceses, and to appoint a small committee to meet similar committees from other dioceses with the object of promoting a scheme which might be adopted by as many dioceses as practicable, and approved by the general synod for all Canada in regard to reciprocity as to the widows' and orphans' and superannuation funds; and that a copy of this report (if adopted) should be sent to the secretaries of all other synods in the Dominion, and that the substance thereof be brought before the respective synods for discussion and such action as may be deemed proper.

The provisions of the canon were explained by Matthew Wilson, K.C., and the resolution was carried.

The executive committee also recommended the adoption of the following canon, relating to the order of deacons: "Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the constitution of canon of the synod, no deacon having a worldly calling shall be admissible as a member of synod (except duly elected thereto as a member), nor have any claim to, or be entitled to participate in any fund of the diocese, whether it be the superannuation, widows' and orphans', or any other, until he shall have rendered such worldly calling, and having received a license in writing from the bishop, shall give his whole time to the ministerial work of the parish. The said vestry explained the causes which rendered such a canon necessary.

Mr. W. F. Cockshut, of Bradford, in a vigorous speech, opposed the canon, which he thought altogether too sweeping. He showed that it would conflict with existing canons and disendow and disfranchise some of the members of the synod. He thought it would be better if more religion was taken into business and more business into religion, and if persons had more industry and less of the ideal put into them.

The bishop explained that the Provincial Synod had authorized the original canon, and that he did not desire to proceed to full orders without the proper qualification. Principal Dymond thought it well to take a broader view and to deal with the subject on general principles rather than to meet individual cases. Canon Young thought it better to give the matter more careful consideration and moved that it be referred back to the executive committee. Carried.

Principal Dymond thought it well to take a broader view and to deal with the subject on general principles rather than to meet individual cases.

Canon Young thought it better to give the matter more careful consideration and moved that it be referred back to the executive committee. Carried.

His Honor Judge Ermatinger proposed a canon to select vestry members from the parishes of the diocese. The principal clauses of which read as follows: 1. This canon shall apply to every church in this diocese whose vestry shall, at any annual meeting, or any special meeting called for the purpose, pass a resolution adopting the provisions of this canon and declaring them to be thereafter in force in the parish. 2. The said vestry shall, at the annual meeting in which such resolution has been passed, or if passed at a special meeting, at the next ensuing annual meeting, select not less than three nor more than eight select vestrymen from among the members of the vestry, who shall hold office until the next annual meeting or their successors, if not elected at such annual meeting, and shall form, with the rector or incumbent and churchwardens, the select vestry of such parish. 3. The select vestry shall possess all the powers and privileges now possessed by the churchwardens, who shall, nevertheless, perform all the duties and functions heretofore performed by churchwardens, but subject to the direction and control of the select vestry, whose duty it shall be to manage and direct the temporal affairs of the church and parish.

The judge at some length explained the advantages to be derived from such a canon.

Rev. C. C. Owen spoke of the great desirability of taking the laity into confidence, and handing all the temporal affairs of the church over to the select vestry. He had found it to work well in the Northwest and elsewhere, and it was working most satisfactorily to all in the Memorial Church.

Mr. N. A. Graham, of the diocese, urged that this would be the means of great gain to the church, as the laymen would take much more interest in church work and affairs of the church and parish.

Rev. C. A. Anderson thought it would be in the best interests of the church to support any measure that would tend to bring the laity into confidence. They have to bear the responsibility, and should have more power in temporal affairs.

Mr. H. Brown, of the diocese, opposed the canon on the ground that it was inadequate to effect the desired purpose. He cited the cases of the church in the United States, where the work existing there had not accomplished the end this synod had in view.

THURSDAY EVENING.
Rev. Rural Dean Hicks took up the debate in favor of the proposed canon on select vestry. He pointed out that it was not the same as that in the United States, where the work existing there had not accomplished the end this synod had in view.

Mr. J. Brown, of Burwell Park, heartily endorsed all that Rural Dean Hicks had said. He felt that the election of a select vestry would have a beneficial influence on the church.

Mr. H. Stewart, of Morpeth, also advocated the proposed canon, and said that the more interest secured from the people the better for the church. He rebuked Dean Hicks for the appointment of a select vestry would be a great benefit. He instanced his own vestry, where an advisory board had rendered valuable help to the wardens.

Rev. J. Downie pointed out that the proposed canon was optional, and a select vestry would not be forced upon a congregation without their consent.

Rev. J. Ardill thought that the proposed canon would clash with the existing canons regarding the powers and duties of churchwardens. He thought it well to hasten slowly in so important a matter. He urged that it would be a cause to fear the laity, as they were almost as agreeable as the clergy.

Rural Dean Mackenzie would vote for the principle of the bill. He had an advisory board, and couldn't tell how much help he had received. He looked to this canon as one of the most hopeful legislation ever proposed by this synod. It would be of great help, especially to young clergymen without experience, going into a new parish, who imagine themselves possessed of plenary powers, and who may make or unmake a parish. The select vestry would help to guide such a parish. He strongly advocated the passing of the canon.
