HORSEMEN SAY NO KICK IS COMING

Supt. Brown Produces Signed Statement.

Denies That Undue Pressure Was Exerted to Obtain It.

No. 1 Committee Decides Charges Are Not Excessive at the Western Fair Stables.

A last night's meeting of the finance committee of the city council the question of the stabling charges made to horsemen using the stables at the Western Fair grounds for horses sold to the British Government was discussed at length. The matter was brought up by a memo. from the council asking the committee to investigate the matter. Ald. Jolly had said in council that he had been told that the rent charged was so excessive that there was a prospect of the remount station being located elsewhere on that account. Superintendent James H. Brown and Secretary J. A. Nelles, of the Western Fair board, were on hand to lay the board's side of the matter before the committee. Superintendent Brown produced the following document, which he thought ought to be conclusive proof that the horsemen were not dis-

"London, Oct. 15, 1901.
"To all whom it may concern:
"We, the undersigned horsemen, buying horses at the exhibition grounds in the city of London, for the Imperial Government, hereby declare, that notwithstanding the articles which appeared in the daily papers on the 8th inst., we have been treated, and are now being treated, in a most liberal manner by the Western Fair board, they having charge us a very low rent indeed, considering the spacious grounds and buildings we occupy. The stables have every accommodation the most particular horseman could desire, and, in fact, it is without exception the most convenient, one of the largest, and the best equipped remount station in the Dominion; therefore we have no complaints whatever to make, and are per-"London, Oct. 15, 1901. Dominion; therefore we have no com-plaints whatever to make, and are per-fectly satisfied with the privileges we now enjoy. (Signed)

"JAMES McCARTNEY,
"JAMES McGREGOR,
"CHARLES FRASER,
"GEORGE SIMPSON,
"C. S. TAMLIN, V.S."

Mr. Brown proceeded to explain that the rental charged is only 50 cents per stall per month for 305 stalls. This is only paid for horses awaiting in-spection by the army buyers. After they are accepted by the government, they are removed to the lower stables, where the horsemen use 374 stalls for which no rental whatever is charged. During this time the dealers are re ceiving 40 cents per head per day for nearly one-half of this is clear profit to the dealers. With 300 or 400 head of horses, the dealers receive $150 or $160 per day from the government; while the fodder will cost them less than $100. Ald. Beattie inquired if there was any truth in the statement that the letter produced had been signed under pressure. He had been told that the vater commissioners or Mr. J. W. Little had told the horsemen that if they did not sign they would be charged for the water used at the stables.

"It is not true," said Mr. Brown. Mr. J. W. Little or the commissioners had nothing whatever to do in the matter. I myself suggested to Mr. McCartney that the horsemen had better not raise the point of excessive charges, as it might direct the attention of the water commissioners to the fact that the water was being used free of charge, and they might then charge the horsemen for it. It was not meant as a threat, and I do not think it was taken as such. Mr. Brown added that Mr. McCartney was the last dealer who should complain, as he had received free use of more stalls than all the other dealers and he had made more money, having handled 20 horses to each 1 haneled by the other dealers. Buildings had cost the city $285,000, and there should be some slight charge made to cover wear and tear. Before the opening of the fair it had cost considerable to repair and disinfect the stables after they had been used by the horsemen. Each horseman should deposit $100, but only one had done so. The matter was a private enterprise, not a government one, and dealers made private sales as well as those to the army. From the stall which cost the dealer 50c per month he might make $50 or more. Each horse brought in by a farmer means $5 or $10 in the dealer's pocket. Wheththe farmer got his fair price or not, the dealer made on the transaction. Ald. Cronyn asked if there was any possibility of the remount station being removed from London.

Mr. Brown said there was not a place west of Toronto where the same facilities could be obtained. At London 1,000 horses can be stabled with charter members of the lodge of this ease, in St. Thomas they cannot stable 100. The shipping facilities here are unsurpassable, the tracks being alongside the sheds. Last week 21 cars of horses were loaded in one hour. The government buyer was much pleased with the premises here, which are excellent for examining, training and exercising the horses. In St. Thomas the examination had to be held on the main street. No remount station would be established elsewhere, unless enormous stables were erected for it and small municipalities would not do this. Col. Dent, the British army buyer, will not go to small outside places to examine horses. The rental charged per stall would not average more than 3 cents per head. Mayor Rumball could not see why these private dealers should be given free stabling. Any horse owner in the city might demand the same from the

Ald. Greenlees thought that the rental iharged was too small. If the horsemen were such ninnyhammers, jackasses and puttyheads as to be so easily forced into signing a string of lies, they deserved nothing. If they had a grievance they should be men enough to stand out and say what it

Ald. Cronyn moved that in view of the letter produced and the explana-tion made by Supt. Brown, the committee report to the council that no cause of complaint existed with regard to the Western Fair board. The general question of securing permanent remount station here was laid over until a reply was received from Ottawa to the city's enquiry as to what initial steps should be taken in the matter.

Can Secure Renewed Health and Strength.

The Rich, Red Blood Made by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Gives New to Every Nerve, Fibre and Organ of the Body.

[From the Budget, Shelburne, N. S.] Among the young ladies of Shelburne there is none today who more fully bears the impress of perfect health than Miss Lilian Durfee. Unfortunately, this was not always the case, few years ago Miss Durfee became ill, and her friends feared that she was going into decline. A doctor was called in and prescribed, but his medicines did not have the desired effect. Her strength gradu-ally left her, her appetite failed, she frequent headaches, was very pale, and finally grew so weak that a walk of a few rods would com-pletely fatigue her. The young lady's family sorrowfully observed that she was steadily failing, and feared that consumption would claim her as a victim. One day a friend urged that she should give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial, but the idea at first was not favorably tertained; it seemed hopeless to expect that any medicine would help her after the doctor's treatment had However, this good friend failed. still urged, and finally prevailed. By the time the third box was used, there was an unmistakable improve-ment in Miss Durfee's condition. Cheered by this, the pills were continued, and in the course of a few weeks the former invalid, whose strength was taxed by the slightest exertion, was almost restored to health. The use of the pills was ealth. still continued and a few weeks more

Miss Durfee again enjoying perfect health. To a reporter who interviewed her, "I believe that Dr. liams' Pink Pills saved my life, and earnestly recommend them to all who fear that consumption has laid its grasp upon them." That the facts related above are not in any way exaggerated, is borne out by the following statement from Robt. G. Irwin, Esq., the well known stipendiary magistrate for the municipality, who says: "I distinctly remember the pale face of Miss Lilian Durfee and the regrets of friends as they expressed their conviction that she would soon be pelled to say farewell to earth. Miss Durfee, however, carries the unmistakable credentials of good health, and frequently expresses her indebtedness to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills." Pale and anaemic girls, or young people with consumptive tendencies, will find renewed health and bodily vigor through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These pills are an unfailing cure for all diseases due to a watery condition of the blood or shattered nerves. Sold by all dealers in medicine or sent postpaid on receipt of 50 cents a box, or $2 50 for six boxes, by addressing the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Brockville. Ont.

THAT ROYAL OAK MYSTERY.

The Dead Woman Evidently Is

And Not the Ontario Girl Who Was Missing From Appin.

Detroit, Oct. 19.—The Royal Oak (Mich.) murder mystery is being cleared up, and as additional facts come to light, the circumstantial evidence points more conclusively to the certainty that the dead woman is not from Appin, Ont., but is a Mrs. Huss, and that Convict Henry Wiseman is the party who last saw Mrs. Huss

Mrs. Huss disappeared the last week in September, 1900, her husband coming from Chicago, and taking the two children and the household goods away. Her alleged cousin, Robert Hale, an umbrella mender escaped from Berrien county jail, came to Royal Oak and lived with Mrs. Huss. After her disappearance he was taken back to Berrien county to serve out the sentence. He is now supposed to be in Windsor, Ont., which he claims as his home. He is colored. Mrs. Huss was last seen by Frank

Marvin, Wiseman's father-in-law, and Convict Wiseman. On the night she disappeared, she asked them where she could buy some wood. Marvin declares Wiseman offered to show her, and walked with her towards the woods. Some time elapsed, and Marvin, after missing a car, returned

Convict Wiseman at first denied knowledge of the incident, but later admitted the details, with the exception that he says he did not accompany the woman. He contradicted himself in several important particulars, and intimated strongly that Marvin and his wife were liars. When last seen Mrs. Huss wore tan shoes. The dead woman had no shoes. A pair of tan shoes were found by Mrs. Wiseman in the house just before they moved to Wayne, which her husband said belonged to Ida Williams, who had been living with the Wisemans. The shoes, it is alleged, were too small for Ida Williams, being 3½ size, but fitted Mrs. Wiseman, who wore them out. Mrs. Wiseman also had a ring, which her husband claimed to have found on the west boulevard in Detroit, but he said nothing of his find for two weeks until he lost it one day while working in a sawmill at Grass Lake. The ring was found and returned to him. This was two weeks after Mrs. Huss had disappear-

Mrs. Edward Tremper, a neighbor of the Huss family a year ago, declares she would swear on the witness stand that Mrs. Huss wore a ring similar to the one which Wise-man had. There was no ring on the fingers of the dead woman's hand. On the body of the weman was found a peculiarly made pin with small red stones in it. This pin Mrs. Tremper described as one of the articles of jewelry worn by Mrs. Huss. Prosecutor K. P. Rockwell, of Pontiac, is satisfied that there is enough evidence on hand to justify him in asking for a warrant for Wiseman's 'The prisoner at Jackson could arrest. be pardoned and rearrested on the REST. Pontiac, Mich., Oct. 18.—Justice of the Peace Harry H. Snowdon yesterday issued a warrant, charging Henry Wiseman with having murdered Mrs. Ellen Huss, in the woods, one and onehalf miles north of Royal Oak, on the afternoon of Sept. 20, 1900.

THE COMPLAINING WITNESS. Detroit, Oct. 19.-Christopher Huss complaining witness in the Wiseman murder case, has returned to his home in South Bend, Ind. Before going he visited_Gilbert Williams, the Windson drayman who is holding Hale's household effects in trust. Huss said that all the goods were his and he arranged with Williams that if Hale failed to turn up within a reasonable time he himself would pay the charges against the furniture and take possession of it. Huss described a great part of the possessions and said that among other things there were a pair of low tan shoes belonging to his wife, his wedding certificate and a small photograph album. "That's right; those things were all there," declared Williams, "but this afternoon Detective Campeau and a little old man wearing glasses came over and went through the stuff and took those things away. They said it was in the name of the law." Drs. J. B. Kennedy and Angus Mc-Lean together examined the remains of the woman whose murdered body was found in the woods near Royal Oak, for the purpose of seeing whether Dr. McLean would agree with the findings of Dr. Kennedy. Dr. Kennedy's opinion was confirmed by that of Dr. McLean when the two had concluded their investigation. The knife wound and the contents of the stomach were carefully examined Prosecutor Rockwell is determined
