London Hunt and Golf Clubs Plan a Fine Season's Sport

Cross-Country Runs Expected To Be Larger Than Ever.

The members of the London Hunt Club and its sister association, the London Golf Club, are already busy with preparations for the summer, which, if carried out, will easily surpass the plans of any previous seasons. The cross-country runs which have always proved such an enjoyable feature for the members of the London Hunt Club, will be commenced very shortly. From present indications the attendance at these runs will be larger than ever before, as the membership of the club has now passed the 250 mark. This is one of the strongest memberships it has ever had. The pack of hounds is now larger than ever also, and it is certain that much good sport will result.

The Golf Club.

The members of the Golf Club have always been most closely affiliated with all the social life of the Hunt Club, and the golf tournaments held frequently last summer always proved most enjoyable. It is the intention to continue these tournaments during the coming summer, and it is not unlikely that a larger schedule will be arranged. The London Golf Club's links, which are among the finest in the country, were never in better shape.

The tennis courts will be laid out very shortly, and the members who go in for this sport will have ample opportunity of playing often.

Dances and Teas.

The club dances and teas will also be continued as in former years. The Golf Club has decided to send a team to compete at the tournament in Hamilton, which commences on June 6 and continues on June 7 and 8. A golf match between local teams will be played at the links on Friday next.

Bowling Team To Tour Great Britain

Brantford, May 1. — The make-up of the Canadian lawn bowling team to tour England, Ireland and Scotland during the coming summer has been announced. A name of two may still be added, but it is practically complete. The gentlemen have all signified their willingness to make the trip, and passage has been engaged for them to sail on June 25.

Several ladies will accompany the team.

The full list of players up to date is: Messrs. Aspinall, Snooks, Watson, Bowden, Ogilvie, A. Gemmell (Toronto), G. H. Orme, C. S. Inksater, H. Creighton, C. Cohoe, J. G. Hay, John Inksater, Lud Cameron (Toronto), W. Chaler, Geo. Anderson (Toronto), Dr. Russell (Hamilton), Dr. Edgar, James Scott, Mr. Fraill, W. A. Wilkes. The ladies who are going are: Mrs. Hay, Mrs. Ogilvie, Mrs. Chaler, Mrs. Anderson, and Mrs. Fraill.

New York Sporting Writer Tells Amos Rusie a Story

A New York sporting writer, in answering a correspondent who wanted to know whether Frank Merriwell and his brother Dick, characters in a well-known weekly nickel novel, were "real live" people or not, replied as follows:

"Dear Anxious: Frank Merriwell is to the ballplayer what Santa Claus is to the kids. He is the royal flush of the game—a thing nice to talk about but seldom seen. If you are right sure you are not kidding me, I will tell you a story of one of Frank Merriwell's adventures that I once told to old Amos Rusie, and you can judge for yourself."

It was a championship game between the Corn Drovers and the Sugar Beet Sweets. Merriwell was the star of the Corn Drovers, and some star he was at that—practically the whole Milky Way.

The game in question was fraught with intense excitement, as all games are—in the papers.

Merriwell for some unaccountable reason was absent, and there was great sadness thereat.

At the end of the eighth inning the score stood 8 to 9 in favor of the Sugar Beet Sweets. Groan after groan arose from the assembled multitude.

Where, oh where, was Merriwell?

As the Corn Drovers went to the bat in the ninth two men were easy out on flies. A loud lament arose from the crowd, but in a moment it turned into a whirlwind of joy.

Frank Merriwell, with his square jaws set and determined, was seen approaching the bench! In a jiffy Frank was at the bat for the pitcher. With a vicious whack he slammed the ball over the right field fence for a home run. Some joy arose, but eight more runs were needed.

But wait! Leave it to Frank Merriwell. Did he fall in the hour of need?

Dashing into the club-house he disguised himself as the next player, and reappearing at the bat again banged the ball over the fence—two runs! Again he galloped into the club-house, disguised himself as the shortstop, and again slammed the ball out of the lot.

And so on it went until he had impersonated each player, made nine home runs and won the game.

At the end of the ninth day, that was adjudged as going some.

"Well," said Rusie, when the story was ended, "I believe that's a darn lie."

HARD WORK FOR THE ONONDAGA

Flanagan Shoving Longboat Right Along—Two Runs a Day.

Caledonia, May 1.—A special to the Toronto Star says: If Tom Longboat wouldn't train in Toronto he certainly is getting his crop full of hard work here under the eye of Tom C. Flanagan of the Irish-Canadians. They have been at it hard since Monday. While the Onondaga is getting his full of hard work, Flanagan is not forgetting good strengthening food. He feeds him on a raw egg and milk diet morning and evening. Longboat, Mike Creed, Hilton Green and Flanagan get up at 7 o'clock, walk three miles at a smart clip, and then have breakfast. At 11 o'clock they go to the athletic grounds, where Longboat and Green go two miles against relays of runners. Creed jumps and Flanagan puts the shot and throws the hammer. After dinner they "mooch" around the farm, and at four o'clock the runners go three hard miles and the others jump and handle the weights. After supper they take another walk, and at 9 o'clock all hands retire. Longboat, who is a moderate snorer, has been cut down to two cigars a day.

Tomorrow he runs ten miles against Indians.

THE TURF.

DAN M'GANN IN ROW WITH M'GRAW

Former Toronto First Base- man Took Several Punches at Rowdy Manager.

Boston, May 1.—The trouble between Manager McGraw of the Giants and the players whom he traded to last winter came to a head yesterday, when Dan McGann, formerly first baseman of Toronto and New York teams, attacked McGraw in the billiard-room of the Copley Square Hotel, and would have beaten him severely but for the interference of Madison and several hotel porters.

The Giants were the guests of Adolph Carle, at a local theater, and on returning to the hotel adjourned to the billiard-room. McGraw was leaning over the table when McGann entered the room. Coming up behind he grabbed McGraw around the neck and began to punch him. Mathewson and several others interfered.

McGann was taken to his room, but later when the players were discussing the affair in the hotel lobby McGann came downstairs and made another attempt to strike McGraw. The hotel manager ordered McGann to leave the hotel, and on his refusal the porters threw him out.

There have been many wordy arguments between the players during the two games of this series, and some are ready for a fight at any time before leaving Boston.

Frank Bowerman and Bill Dahlen have been denouncing McGraw since the season opened. Bowerman has not been on speaking terms with the Giants' manager for several years, and has threatened to square up his account with McGraw at the first opportunity, so it is expected that he will help McGann in getting revenge.

Dahlen and Browne have so far contented themselves with threats against the New York manager.

The trouble arose over a remark made by McGraw at the ball game the day before. He called McGann an "ice-wagon" when the latter hit into a double play in the ninth as an emergency batter.

Kid Elberfeld says Willie Keeler's return to condition is due to tramping over the Tennessee mountains with Elberfeld this spring.

COBB BATS IN TIGER VICTORY

The Speedy Georgian Breaks Losing Streak By His Heavy Hitting.

Detroit, May 2. — The Tigers awoke yesterday and played a fast, snappy game, beating the White Sox 4 to 2. In three brief rounds they piled up four runs off Frank Smith, with Ty Cobb starring in the heavy hitting. The great Georgian lasted just that long, then he was put out of the game by Silk O'Loughlin. It was the first time in his life that he was ever put out of a game. The champion batter had batted in all the four runs made by the Tigers. The last two he hit in with a three-bagger and was dashing home in the hope of making the first home run of the season. He had hit right field and the relayed throw reached the plate just about as he did. It was one of those close plays that could go either way. O'Loughlin called him out, and Ty, in the heat of the moment, after his hard run, grabbed him by the arm and protested. Silk ordered him from the field. But he had been in long enough to win the game. Cobb succeeded Smith after that, and but one hit was allowed in the remaining five innings. Mullin worked for Detroit, and although outbatted by Chicago pitched a good game. Schaefer was Cobb's mate in the starring line, the Dutchman pulling off a brilliant hit-and-run play that paved the way to Cobb's three-bagger. McIntyre again starred in the field, making another spectacular catch. The whole team played faster, snappier ball than they have for some time.

McIntyre opened by walking. Schaefer sent a fast bunt toward first and beat it with ease. Fielder Jones robbed Sam Crawford of a sure home run by a great catch, but McIntyre sprinted to third. Then Cobb opened up. The Georgian hit past third for two bases, bringing in McIntyre and Schaefer. He tried to make it a three-bagger, but a fast return of the ball by Dougherty got him. Mullin was holding the Sox safely, and in the third the Tigers went to Smith again.

They scored two more runs after two were out. Mullin had rolled to Donahue when McIntyre got to first as the result of a crack on the leg from Smith. Billy Sullivan guessed the Tigers were trying the hit-and-run play this time and had Smith pitch out. It was a clutch that McIntyre was gone when he started down, but Schaefer reached up for the ball as it came to Sullivan. He caught it high in the air and sent it crashing through the box. McIntyre went all the way to third on the hit, and the then tried the double steal, but Matty was caught at the plate. Crawford was walked, and then came Cobb again. This time he hit to right field, over Anderson's head, and tried for home. "He was called out and the argument followed."

Altrock followed Smith into the box then and from then on the Tigers did nothing worth mentioning.

The Sox got their two runs in the fifth and sixth. With one down, Altrock walked and Dougherty singled. Jones grounded to Rossman and Altrock scored.

In the sixth Anderson walked and stole second, scoring on Donahue's single to right.

Canadian Sports

"Judge" Smith, of Buffalo, will act as starter at the June meeting at Queen's Park here.

Car Shops and Y. M. C. A. soccer teams will meet at Carling's Heights this afternoon at 4 o'clock. Car Shops' line-up is as follows: Goal, Holbrook; backs, Jarvis, A. Matthews (captain); half-backs, Kinsey, Trot, Buckwood; forwards, Sloper, Burrows, Blakemore, Parsons and Pedler.

BASEBALL.
A very interesting game of baseball was played between the Junior Thistles and Junior Nelsons, the latter going down to defeat by a score of 12 to 4. Batteries, Wood and Major; Cudney and Tanner.

LOCAL SPORTS

Yesterday was getaway day for the Public School League, and while the kiddies are not yet in the best of trim they put up a very fair article of baseball.

On the C. P. R. diamond the Princess avenue team defeated the Lorne avenue ballplayers by a score of 15 to 14. The game was hard-fought all the way, and the winner was not in sight until the last inning was played.

Batteries for Princess—Feigler and Thomas. For Lorne—Nickle and Reid. Umpire—Claude Brown.

Chesley Wins.
The Chesley avenue nine proved too much for the Colborne street boys in a hard-fought battle at Queen's Park by 16 to 9.

The feature of the game was the umpiring of Inspector Edwards who was very balling himself.

Batteries—Chesley, McDonald and Hunter. Colborne—McCready and Harris.
Umpire—C. B. Edwards.

Thistles Stung 'Em.
The Junior Thistles were the real things yesterday when they met and defeated the Junior Nelsons by a score of 12 to 4. Batteries: Thistles—Major and Wood. Nelsons—Tanner and Pudney.

Harvey's diamond last night was the scene of an interesting battle between the Fall Malls and the Waldens, the former winning by 5 to 4. Batteries: T. Brand and P. Ferguson; Osborne, Ruddy and Walden.

Soccer Grounds.
The executive of the local W. F. A. team will hold a meeting on Thursday next to decide upon the question of grounds for the season. There is a well-grounded rumor that the contests will be played at the Heights instead of Tecumseh Park. If this be true but little support can be looked for from the public. It is bad enough to have to travel up to the Barracks all during the City League season without doing so for the W. F. A. games, too.

Drivers' Parade.
President Geo. McCormick, of the Amateur Road Drivers' Association, today stated to The Advertiser that it is the intention of the association to hold a big drivers' parade in his city on Victoria Day. Everybody who owns a good horse will be asked to participate and the procession should number at least 150 rigs. Teams also will be welcomed.

The route has not yet been settled, but Mr. McCormick thinks it will be from Victoria Park on Wellington street, south to Dundas, west to Richmond, south to King, west to Talbot, north to Queen's avenue, and east to the fair grounds.

Fair Field Meet.
Prizes have been ordered by the Western Fair Board for the field meet three cups and forty odd medals are expected to arrive within two weeks or so.

The Empress avenue school team grounds are located at the corner of Dundas and Balfour streets and the Talbots will play on the C. P. R. diamond.

Regatta in June.
At a well-attended meeting of the rowing members of the London Bowling and Rowing Club last night it was decided to hold a regatta here during June. The regatta will be run along the same lines as the one held two years ago, and will be for the purpose of getting the oarsmen into trim for a larger regatta later on.

A rowing committee was selected, but its membership will not be made public until Monday when the general executive will have approved of the same.

"Buccaneers" Still Winning.
An exhibition game of ball was played last night between the Pirates and Shamrocks, the "Buccaneers" winning by a score of 16 to 5. The features of the game were Corcoran's home run and Scatcherd's fielding.

"Fitz" in Chicago
PRAISES JOHNSON
Chicago, May 1. — Former middle and heavyweight champion of America Bob Fitzsimmons arrived in Chicago from the east yesterday morning and left last night for San Francisco, where he and Mrs. "Fitz" will begin an eight weeks' vaudeville engagement.

The old veteran looked as chipper as ever and wished it understood that there are several good fighters still left in him. Of course, he has no intention at present, of demonstrating his athletic ability against any one in particular, but if the right man crossed his path and any club in the country would consider his services worth, say, $5,000, he would not mind doing a bit of demonstrating.

Bob has an exalted opinion of Jack Johnson's fighting skill and said the big black would surely lick Tommy Burns if they ever hook up. "I did not take much stock in Johnson as a fighter," he said, "until he beat me at Philadelphia. I thought I could beat him easily and I really believe he was of the same opinion, as he asked to have the purse split, which, of course, I refused. I was not in good condition that night, having injured one of my arms while in training, but that I considered him easy pickings. Before we had been at it a minute I saw I was up against a big, strong, clever fighter and really was not surprised when he knocked me out. I must admit Burns is a good little man, but Johnson is a good big man, and therefore should beat him."

Bob called on several of his old-time friends before proceeding on his journey westward.

CURRENT SPORTING GOSSIP

BY SOUTHPAW

Notice: To insure publication on this page, sporting items should be phoned or otherwise sent in by 10:30 a.m. The Advertiser would deem it a favor if notification were given of meetings, etc., at which business of general interest to the local sporting public is to be transacted. It is not always possible to cover all local sporting events, such as the school baseball games, for example; but if the scores are phoned in or dropped into the mail box in the business office door they will be published.

A LOCAL BOWLING FAN takes exception to Joe West's statement in yesterday's Advertiser that Tommy Dewan refused to give him a return tenpin match. The aforesaid fan read the item, and became so highly indignant that in the heat of the moment he sat down and replied to the statement, and neglected to sign his name to the reply. The letter was in the nature of a roast for West. Letters for publication in the Advertiser must be signed by the writer's name, not for publication, but as an evidence of good faith.

THE PROPOSED ACTION of the W. F. A. in playing its games on the heights savors strongly of the baby act. Before it was discovered that the games could be played at Tecumseh Park there was a howl set up about "partiality" that could be heard in Detroit. Now that everything is open for games across the creek, the W. F. A. proposes to flop.

A RARE TREAT is in store for lovers of baseball on Thursday afternoon next, when the mighty newspaper team of ballplayers will engage in mortal combat with the team from the "Brown of Harvard" company, that plays at the Grand on that day.

The quill-drivers are somewhat shy of condition, and have not had much practice, but are chockful of ginger-tees, and other ingredients. They are perfectly aware of what they are doing, but they fear not. The "Brown of Harvard" Company has some real college boys on the team and they can play real ball. But, as said before, the newspaper demon athletes fear not, but are ready for the mortal combat.

The team to meet the thespians has not been chosen yet, as every candidate must show excellent form. Manager George S. McLeish, of the Grand Opera House, is arranging the details, and it promises to be a great game. It might be mentioned incidentally that Mr. McLeish is backing the local newspaper bunch for millions of money—principally store cash.

NOTES OF THE CANADIAN TURF

There will certainly be something doing this year in the free-for-alls on the Canadian circuit when such cracks as Gallagher 2:03 1/2, Lady May, 2:04 1/2, Darts B, 2:05 1/2, Davy K, 2:05 1/2, John McEwen 2:05 1/2, and several others come together.
