League.

Manager McAleer regards the incident East Enders Trounced 16 to 0, in the Methodist League Match at Queen's Park.

Umpires, Hurst and Byron.

Centennials took their second defeat from the Firsts in a Methodist League tonight for the beating he got some game at Queen's Park last night. Winweeks ago from Frankie Burns, of Jer- ning the toss, the Firsts took the field, with Thorne in the box, and retired the Centennials without a run. With Bur-ridge up for a safe single, McKay followed with a two-bagger, then Billy Whit-ing with his always-to-be-counted-upon ong drive brought in McKay. Burridge was out on base.

Taylor, Colby and McLeod fanned, the Centennials again retiring without a run.
Crawford, for the Firsts, went to first on balls. Nash singled and Barnett fanned.

Firsts then let loose and retired with eight runs.
The third inning was a repetition of the second forthe Centennials.

Once more, with two men on bases, Jack Elliott beat out a fine two-bagger, scoring two more runs. Firsts retired with four more tallies, making their total of 16 runs.

Patrick came up for a single and Reid walked. Johnson went out on a long drive to Zeigler, who doubled to second catching Reid, and Colby went out on a fly to Burridge, making a no-run game.

SHARKEY WANTS TO TAKE JACK'S PLACE

Thinks Johnson Will Be Injured and Unable to Meet Jeffries.

Has Been Doing a Lot of Training and Will Challenge the Winner at Ringside,

New York, June 8 .- Tom Sharkey's ambition is to be the champion heavyweight of the world. He made this statement teday, and looked fit enough to battle for the title. Sharkey has been reading the accounts of Johnson's lack of training and his craze for fast automobiling, and thinks that before July 4 the colored heavy-weight will injure himself, and he wants to take a third crack at his old-time opponent.

For the past month he has been working daily in the gymnasium, and has also been out on the road. All he asks is three weeks' preparation, and he will prove to the satisfaction of the people that he is capable of beating either Jeffries or Johnson.

Judging by appearances Sharkey is in magnificent fettle today. His weight is 212 pounds, and he looks better than ever. His physical development is perfect, and His physical development is perfect, and there is not much fat on him. MOTOR BOAT SKIPPERS TO RACE TINY CRAFTS THROUGH NIAGARA WHIRLPOOL

Niagara whirlpool? The question will be answered next September, when about a dozen of these staunch little crafts will start in the comparatively calm water just below Niagara Falls, where the Maid of the Mist docks, and race down-stream through the upper rapids, the Giant Wave and into the fatal whirlpool basin and the gorge. The boats which pass through safely will finish the race through the lower rapids and cross the finishing line in the smooth waters below.
