Mother Declares Stranger Came to Door, Secured Gun and Killed Girl.

WOMAN IS HELD

Special to The Advertiser.

Dundas, Sept. 25.—Strange and mystifying circumstances surround the killing of Lena Lomonitio, 20months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Lomonitio, whose lifeles body was found in the yard of the Lomonitio home at Ancaster, near here, yesterday afternoon with her head blown off. Lomonitio was working on an adjoining farm at a cornhusking bee, Mrs. Lomonitio in her tomato garden picking tomatoes, little Lena was left playing outside around the house ,while the other baby, James, 4 months old, was left sleeping inside the house.

Shortly after noon, Mrs. Lomonitio returned to the farm house. There was a man at the door. He was an Englishman. "I want your husband's shotgun to shoot a ground hog over in a field," he is alleged to have said to Mrs. Lomonitio, who asked: "What do you want a gun for?" The man insisted, adding her husband had sent him for the gun. She refused and the man brushed by her, ran through the living-room into the bedroom and seized the single-barrel shotgun. Mrs. Lomonitio picked up her baby Lena and went out to watch the man, but he only walked a few yards to the rear of the house when he suddenly turned to Mrs. Lomonitio and said: "I am going to kill you." Terrified. put her child down on the ground and started across the orchard to call her husband. Then the mysterious man seized the baby and blew its head off, and dashed away, leaving the shotgun lying at the babe's feet.

This is the story that Mrs. Lomon-itio told Chief of Police Lumsden of Dundas a few hours after the shooting. Mrs. Lomonitio is now held in jail at the court house in Dundas without any charge against her, pend-ing a preliminary police court trial, this afternoon. A formal inquest was held this morning, after a coroner's jury visited the farm, and ad-journed till October 2.
