PEGGING AWAY AT HYMAN.

COMMENTARY ON THE LONDON
REBELLION TRIAL.

The Court Room Crowded to the Doors—Little Evidence of Importance to the Audience—The Conspiracy Trials at Ottawa—Nearer Issues a Number of Additional Warrants.

LONDON, Nov. 26.—The trial of the petition against the return of Charles S. Hyman as member of Parliament for this city by the House of Commons this afternoon shortly after 1 o'clock, before the Hon. Justice Ferguson and Robertson. The counsel for the Government were Mr. J. C. O'Connell, and J. C. Judd for the petitioner; John Pring and S. H. Blake, Q.C., and Gibson, Q.C., for the Government.

SEE CONTRACTORS IN COURT.

Continuation of the Conspiracy Trials at Ottawa Yesterday.

OTTAWA, Nov. 26.—On the re-opening of the conspiracy investigation against Hon. Thomas McCreary and the conspiracy this morning W. B. Cross again took the stand and presented a statement of the payment of the $25,000 note and the subsequent treatment of the same. In 1887 several contracts besides those mentioned in the indictment were being carried on by Mr. Kennedy & Co., but no trace of the amount of profits derived from any contract could be found. In March, 1888, $100,000 was paid, and in January, 1889, $130,000 was divided.

CONFERRED THEIR CRIME.

Two Brothers Admit Having Attempted to Wreck a Train.

BARRE, Nov. 26.—On Oct. 29 last an attempt was made to throw the passenger train going north off the track near Severn Bridge. A piece of iron was placed on the rails in such a way that the engine would assuredly have left the track had it not been seen and removed by a section man. It was ascertained that the conspirators had been fatal to one falling over it. Suspicion rested on two persons named William and George Bennett, who were arrested on the charge, and were committed to Barrill jail for trial.

DEAR ANTHONY FOR GIN.

A Druggist's Mistake, Which May Have a Serious Consequence.

GRAND VALLEY, Ont., Nov. 26.—George Bennett of Laurel was in Shelburne on business, and not feeling very well he got something in the line of a stimulant. He was given a bottle of ammonia in mistake for gin and took a large dose. The mistake was noticed at once and he was removed to the residence of his brother-in-law, Mr. Bennett, who is a doctor at present living in a very critical condition.

HIS NAME WAS DENIED.

But Doctors Pumped Two Ounces of Poison Out of Him.

LINDSAY, Nov. 26.—H. Dennis, better known as "Doctor," attempted to commit suicide by taking a number of Morphine pills. He had been drinking hard lately, and when partly intoxicated he purchased a bottle of medicine. He made up his mind to take the whole of the contents. After two hours' work by physicians his life was despaired of, but he recovered after the doctor's treatment, saying "that he wanted to die."

Blaine and the Presidency.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—Blaine's hope in this afternoon, as a result of the Senator's speech, that he is in the field. His friends say that if this is not the case he ought to let them know at once, as he has a long time to go. There seems to be a belief that it would not be many weeks before such an announcement appeared, and a prominent politician would add that if this was not the wish of the party he would accept the nomination if it came to him as the unanimous expression of all the delegates.

An Electric Railway to Grimsby Camp.

HAMILTON, Nov. 26.—Mr. C. J. Myles, one of the lessees of the Hamilton & Dundas Street Railway, has announced that he has decided to build an electric railway from Hamilton to Grimsby camp, passing through Bartonville, Stone Creek, Wilton and Grimsby. The route is about 15 miles long and will cost $175,000; $75,000 has already been subscribed, and as soon as a charter is obtained the work will be commenced. The cars will run on the trolley system and the line will tap the big fruit district between here and Beaverville.

STANDING IN THE WATER DEAD.

Double Drowning of Two Young Skaters in New Brunswick.

WOODSTOCK, N.B., Nov. 26.—A very sad drowning accident occurred at Woodstock, N.B., on Nov. 25. Two promising lads named Tracy and Sherwood, about 14 years of age, went skating on a pond about two hours after they left their homes one of the boys slipped and passing noticed a hole in the pond, which aroused suspicion. He immediately collected a crowd, and upon reaching in the hole the bodies of the two boys were found in an upright position just below the surface.

LAW IS BLOWING.

Writes Issued at the Rate of Twenty Ten a Day—Jury Overstayed.

There were issued from the office of the clerk of process at Osgoode Hall during the week ending Nov. 25, 1900, 220 writs, an increase of 38 over the whole number issued last year. Two hundred and twenty more writs have been issued so far this year than were issued for the corresponding period of last year. During December of last year there were 228 writs issued, and allowing for the issue of the writs of habeas corpus, the number for the present year (though the number will all likelihood be greater), and adding to this 28 writs of 200 more this year than last. The number of writs issued during the present year is the highest since 1897.
