'Tis a Selfish Age.
"We live in an age of intense selfishness,

To me these words are most appropriate, as the world never before had such a burden to carry as she has to-day. Who shall help to lift these burdens? The answer comes not from the halis of science nor from the man of thought, but the cry comes ringing down the ages, "Bear ye one another's burdens." What we want to-day is more of the philosophy of Paul than of Herbert Spencer. We must bear one another's burdens." What we want to day is more of the philosophy of Paul than of Herbert Spencer.
