

CONTENTS.

VII

to the Senate of New York. — Advocates the passage of the celebrated "Church Property Bill." — Character and purposes of the bill. — The bill is passed. — Mr. Brooks is attacked by Archbishop Hughes. — The controversy. — The principle involved in the bill. — The dangers involved. — Mr. Brooks renominated for the Senate. — Attempt of Bishop Hughes to defeat him. — Mr. Brooks is elected by a very large majority. — Is nominated for the governorship of New York. — Mr. Brooks as a campaigner, . . . 161

CENTRAL AMERICA.

CHAPTER I.

Our commercial relations. — The Federal Republic of Central America. — General Francisco Morazan. — Destruction of the republic. — General William Walker. — His first expedition. — President of Lower California. — Invasion of Sonora. — Commercial company formed in California. — Grant of land. — Castellan, the republican democrat. — Chamorra, the aristocrat. — Cabanos. — The priesthood unite with the autocrat Chamorra, . . . 169

CHAPTER II.

The battle of Rivas. — Its effect upon the Nicaraguans. — Battle of Virgin Bay. — Granada. — Romish church used as a fort. — Battle of Granada. — Walker is offered the presidency of Nicaragua. — He declines in favor of General Corral. — St. George cannonaded. — Walker reinforced. — Arrival of Col. Fry and Parker H. French. — Expedition against San Carlos. — Padre Vijil. — Walker's forces augmented. — Display of firmness. — Treason of Gen. Corral. — His execution. — Rivas president. — The "Nicaraguense" newspaper started. — Col. French sent as minister plenipotentiary to Washington. — Is not received. — Shamefully treated by the Pierce administration. — Natural scenery of Nicaragua. — Schlessinger, . . . 179

CHAPTER III.

Battle of Santa Rosa. — Schlessinger's treachery. — Battle of Rivas. — German deserters. — Individual prowess. — The testimonial at Nashville, . . . 194

CHAPTER IV.

English interference. — American enterprise. — Popularity of Gen. Walker. — His election to the Presidency. — Inauguration. — March of Christianity in Nicaragua, . . . 206

THE ROMISH SYSTEM A POLITICAL CORPORATION.

CHAPTER I.

Rome opposed to the circulation of the Bible. — Contrast between enlightened freedom and Romish ignorance and servitude. — Power of the Confessional. — Secrets extorted by confessors. — Ballot-box, . . . 216