

THE SAUCY DOG.—(See third page.)

"When I'm a man," said lazy Jim, "I shan't work; I'll just ask the Lord to give me 'my daily bread,' as Jesus says in our Sabbath-school lesson.

"Then you'll starve," said his mother, "for God gives us our daily bread through the means he has appointed, and we must work as well as play."