THE Subscriber has JUST RECEIVED, via Boston, a fresh supply of PROFESSOR YOUNG'S DISCOURSES. Price Reduced to Five Shillings.

"The Author of these Discourses was known before he left this country, as a rising minister of unusual promise. The specimens of pulpit prelections given, are very varied. There are doctrinal sermons, among which, those on the Intercession of the Spirit, and the Perseverance of the Saints, may be referred to as discourses of uncommon vigor, ability, and completeness."—The Edinburgh Witness.

"The author must be an accomplished Divine. The Discourses are uniformly marked by richness of thought, simplicity, and earnestness."—The Irish Presbyterian.

"Professor Young is unquestionably a man of practical piety, and fervid eloquence, and goes unhesitatingly into the depths of religion, in its bearing upon human nature."—Bell's Weekly Messenger, London.

"These homiletical and expository exhortations evince sound judgment, biblical learning, and a tasteful mastery of diction. * * * The metrical version of Habakkuk, at the close, is at once bold and successful."—Biblical Repository and Princeton Review.
