

LONGMANS, GREEN & CO.'S

NEW EDUCATIONAL BOOKS.

Longmans' School Grammar.

By DAVID SALMON. Crown. 8vo. 272 Pages. 75 Cents.

The present "grammar" begins with induction but passes immediately to deduction, and both methods are employed throughout; each induction leading to new deductions; hence, it is thoroughly logical and scientific. The author has produced one of the best working grammars we have ever seen, and this applies to all its parts. It is excellently arranged and perfectly graded. Part Four, on "History and Derivation," is as beautiful and interesting as it is valuable—but this might be said of the whole book.—Teacher, N. Y.

Longmans' Junior School Grammar.

By DAVID SALMON. Crown. 8vo. 128 Pages. 30 Cents.

The Junior School Grammar is an adaptation of the first half of the author's School Grammar with some of the explanations simplified, with many of the exercises amplified, and with a few of the difficulties omitted.

The characteristics of the book are, in addition to its inductive method, the number and variety of its exercises, and the omission of all the minor distinctions of grammar. It thus provides much to do and not much to remember.
