THE CANADIAN MEDICAL ASSOCIATION.

The Thirty-third Annual Meeting of the Canadian Medical Association, which was held in the City of Ottawa, on the 12th, 13th and 14th of September, was among the most successful which the Association has had; nearly one hundred and sixty members registered. The number of papers read and their general character was, if anything, greater in number and superior to any presented at previous meetings. Moreover, the attendance was well kept up, even at the last meeting held on the afternoon of the 14th inst.

The address on surgery, by Mr. Edmund Owen, of London, England, who came to this country specially for this purpose, was the treat of the meeting. Couched in the most beautiful English, and delivered with more than usual oratorical force, it held the large audience spell-bound up to its close. Of its eminently practical character we will not write, as we publish it in full in this issue.

The address on medicine by Dr. Shattuck, of Boston, was also a scholarly production, and was much appreciated. Dr. William Gardner, of Montreal, gave the address on gynecology, which gave full evidence that he fills a prominent place in that field of practice.

The hospitality of the professors in Ottawa was un-
