

Incline your ear, and come unto Me: hear, and your soul shall live.
Isaiah lv. 5.

Montreal. He will have a good opportunity for shewing his ability at Hamilton, as the work at that point has had some Gymnastic exercises during the past year, and there will need to be a few back somersaults to bring its face in the right direction.

INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION.

THE 25th International Convention of Associations in the U. S. and British Provinces will convene in Milwaukee, Wis., May 16th. The Milwaukee Association is making extensive preparations to entertain the Convention, which promises to be a large one. The General Secretaries Conference meets at Racine, Wis., May 12th, and continues its sessions until the evening of 15th. This Association will probably be represented at the Convention, but it is not likely that it will be at the conference.

SUCH LOVE!

"But as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the Sons of God, even to them that believe on His name."
John 1. 12.

WHEN the Danish missionaries stationed at Malabar set some of their converts to translate a catechism, in which the above text appeared, one of the translators was so overcome that he suddenly laid down his pen, and exclaimed, "Sons of God! it is too much. Let me rather render it, 'They shall be permitted to kiss his feet!'"

SATISFIED.

CHRIST has satisfied God. The blood which has satisfied God should satisfy conscience. If God is satisfied, should not my conscience be satisfied?

CHRIST'S SERVANT.

EVERY Christian is a servant. Jesus is his master. The precepts of the Gospel are his rule. He that is not willing to serve Christ, has no evidence whatever that he is interested in him. The Christian was purchased to be a servant. He is converted that he may devote his powers to the Lord. Let us then inquire, Is Jesus our Master? Do we view Him as such? Do we consult His will in all we do? Do we act as under His eye? Do we often ask ourselves the question, Will this please my Master? Do we look to Him for our supplies, for orders and for our rewards as servants should? O may the Holy Spirit daily impress these thoughts upon our minds—I am Christ's servant. He is my wise, holy, and generous Master. My one business is to please Him. My one object should be to secure His approbation. The world can have no claim upon me. Satan has no right to me. The flesh ought not to rule in me. Have I been serving Jesus to-day? Have I consulted His Word? Have I sought His grace?

A VALUABLE HELPER.

AT a Temperance Convention held at Columbus, Ohio, one of the speakers asked, "What good has the liquor seller done? Can any one think of any one whom the liquor business has benefited? I pause for an answer." There was silence for some minutes, and it was then broken by some one crying out, "Yes, the Grave-digger." And the audience responded,
