M. Pouchet. In his great work, "The Universe," says that "Anatomically and physically speaking, the human mechanism is very rude and coarse, compared to the exquisite delicacy revealed in the organism of some animals. But in us, the intellect, the real sceptre of the universe predominates over the apparent imperfection of matter. Through it man alone approaches the chosen creature who sits near the throne of the Eternal, and forms a bond of union between heaven and earth. If in his structure he belongs to our sphere, he seems already to elevate himself towards the Supreme Essence by the splendour of his genius. A grand and philosophic truth, and yet how comparatively small the number, and great the genius, compared to the number of the earth's inhabitants. Were men to conform more to the laws of health and nature, and be less addicted to the gratification of his passions, it would not be necessary to advertise the 'Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites as a restorative for the powers of the brain and nervous system, while the world's progress in enlightenment would indeed be marvellous.

The Produce Market: - The market has been rather quiet since our last issue. Prices, however, have been firm, and the demand for almost all sorts of produce active. The tendency of the English markets during the week has been downwards, but this fact has exercised very little influence here, because nearly all offering is required for the local demand. NEW-YORK TRIBUNE. 1873.

Now, as heretofore, THE TRIBUNE strives to be first of all and preeminently a news paper. France a Republic - England and Germany gradually permeated with Republican ideas - Spain swaying in the nerveless grasp of a ruler too good for a King and too weak for a Republic, who has failed to govern the great island that blocks the entrance to our Gulf of Mexico, and equally unable to give it up - the German-speaking peoples agitated by a new Protestantism, separating from the See of Rome on the dogma of Papal Infallibility and assuming to recognize the "Old Catholics" - the whole Continent pervaded by the insidious ferment that comes of the conflict between old ideas, philosophical, theological, material, and the advance of physical Science - Russia and Great Britain running a race for the mal gain that shall determine Asiatic supremacy - China seeming ready to abandon her advances and recede - her half open gates - Japan abolishing feudalism and firing Western civilization to irradiate Western commerce to enrich her long-hidden empire - such are phases of the news from abroad which the mails over all continents and the wires under all Seas are daily bearing to us. With able and trusted correspondents in the leading capitals, and wherever great events are in progress, THE TRIBUNE aims, at whatever cost, to lay before its readers the most prompt, complete, and popular presentation of these diverse and conflicting movements, through all of which, as it fondly trusts, the toiling masses are every where struggling up toward larger recognition and a brighter future.

At home the struggle for freedom seems over. The last slave has long been citizen, the last opposition to emancipation, enfranchisement, equal civil rights, has formally been abandoned. No party, North or South, longer disputes the result of the War for the Union; and all declare that these results must never be undone; and, with a whole people thus united on the grand platform of All Rights for All, who to one bloody struggle, and the prolonged civil contests that followed, have led us, the Republic closes the records of the bitter, hateful past, and turns peacefully, hopefully, to the less alarming because less vital problems of the future. To whatever may elucidate the general discussion or action on these, THE TRIBUNE gives ample and most impartial report. Whatever party, by its progress, whether political leaders may say, whatever officers may do, is fairly set down in its columns, whether this news helps or hinders its own views. Its readers have the right to an honest statement of the facts; and this they always get.

THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE, now more than thirty years old, has endeavored to keep up with the progress of the age in improvement and enterprise. It devotes a large share of its columns to Agriculture as the most essential and general of human pursuits. It employs the ablest and most successful cultivators to set forth in brief, clear essays, their practical views of the Farmer's work. It reports public discussions which elucidate that work; gathers from every source agricultural news, the reports of the latest experiments, the stories of the latest successes and failures, and whatever may tend at once to better Agriculture, and to commend it as the first and most important of progressive Art, based on natural science.

THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE appeals also to Teachers, Students, and persons of inquiring minds, by the character of its literary contents, which include reviews of all the works proceeding from the master minds of the old or of the New World, with liberal extracts from those of especial interest. Its literary department also claims attention, but in a subordinate degree. "Home Literature" are discussed weekly by a lady specially qualified to instruct and interest her own sex, and the younger portion of the other. No column is more eagerly sought or perused with greater average profit than hers. The News of the Day, elucidated by brief comments, is condensed that no reader can deem it diffuse, while given sufficiently in detail to satisfy the wants of the average reader. Selections are regularly made from the extensive correspondence of THE DAILY TRIBUNE from every country, and its editorials of more permanent value are here reproduced. In short, THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE connects itself to Millions, by ministering to their intellectual wants more fully than they are met by any other journal, while its regular reports of the Cattle, Country Produce, and other Markets, will, of themselves, save the farmer who regularly notes them far more than his journal's price.

For the family circle of the educated farmer or artisan, THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE has no superior, as is proved by the hundred of thousands who, having read it from childhood, still cherish and enjoy it in the prime and on the down hill of life. We respectfully urge those who know its worth to commend THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE to their friends and neighbors, and we prefer it to clubs at prices which barely pay the cost of paper and postage.

TERMS OF THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE. TO MAIL SUBSCRIBERS. One copy, one year - 52 issues - $2 00 Five copies, one year - 52 issues - 7 50 TO ONE ADDRESS, all at one Post Office. 10 copies - $1 25 each. 20 copies - 1 00 each. 30 copies - 1 00 each. For Clubs of Fifty THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE will be sent as an extra copy. NEW-YORK SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE is published every TUESDAY and FRIDAY, and being printed twice a week it contains nearly all the important News, Correspondence, Reviews, and Editorials of THE DAILY, including everything on the subject of Agriculture, and much interesting and valuable matter for which there is not sufficient room in THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE. THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE also gives, in the course of a year, THREE or FOUR of the BEST AND LATEST POPULAR NOVELS, by living authors. The cost of these alone, if bought in book form, would be from six to eight dollars. Its price has been lately reduced, so that Clubs can now secure it at little more than the cost, to single subscribers. THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE also can so much current intelligence and permanent literary matter be had at so cheap a rate as in THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE. TERMS OF THE SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE. Periodicals. THE FIRST OF JUVENILE PERIODICALS. GOOD THINGS FOR THE YOUNG OF ALL AGES. EDITED BY GEORGE MACDONALD, AND ILLUSTRATED BY THE BEST ARTISTS. This Magazine has hitherto been issued under the title of "GOOD WORDS FOR THE YOUNG." To mark the important changes and improvements which have been introduced, it has been thought well to alter the name to the simpler and plilder one given above. Good Things will address itself to the young of all ages, from the little beginner, who can just read a picture, to the big boys and girls who study at the desk or about in the playground; and an onwards up to the veterans who, after all their learning, turn to the children for a fresher wisdom, and after all their work, sit in the shady corner and play the old games over again in their heads. "GOOD THINGS" hopes, as a periodical, to have its margins well thumbed and dog-eared; and when the binder has thumbed those and made it fit for the library, the volume will try for a fixed place there in good company. The flavors of a multitude of assorted "goodies" cannot be put into a prospectus; but the
