

PARAGRAPHIC.

The SWIFT SINGER OF MICHIGAN tells no story that finds as responsive an echo in all hearts as the comforting and assuring words given in the short extract below. Speaking of one of the painful realities of life—i.e., an aching corn—Mr. C. Cronk, of Dowagiac, Michigan, adds testimony to the marvellous results attending the use of that great corn cure—Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor—"I have tried it to my entire satisfaction, and though not in my line of business, would like to keep it in stock. Beware of substitutes and imitations. Sold by druggists and country merchants."

American exporters of meat to the British market are likely to have even a more formidable rival than New Zealand in the Russian Baltic Provinces if war does not intervene to head it off. A large company at Libau is said to have facilities for slaughtering 90,000 head of cattle annually, and to be doing a business with London of $100,000 a month.

If you want knowledge you must toil for it; if you want food you must work for it; if you want pleasure you must earn it;—but if you want nice soft hands you have only to use Eatey's Fragrant Philoderma.

Farmers and gardeners know that their most promising fields, if uncared for, will in a few years become unprofitable. It would be well if parents knew the same of their children, and looked more heedfully to their culture.

Do you feel languid and dull, and have no appetite, then your system is out of order and requires a good bracing medicine. Take a few bottles of Eatey's Iron and Quinine Tonic.

Princess Beatrice's bridesmaids will probably be her nieces, the daughters of the Prince of Wales and the Duke of Edinburgh, and the Princess Irene of Hesse.

A life saved for thirty-five cents! A lady in Boston had diphtheria and was almost dead from strangulation, but was instantly relieved and finally cured by Johnson's Anodyne Liniment. Every family should have a bottle ready for instant use.

Miss Gordon has received an autograph letter from the Queen, expressed in terms of the most tender sympathy, with her and the other members of the family.

Profitable investment. A dollar's worth Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders fed to a coop of thirty hens will yield a profit of three dollars, besides preventing all manner of diseases. Be sure to get Sheridan's. The large 25c. packs of other makes are worthless.

The ladies say that Philoderma is the nicest thing they ever used for the hands and complexion.

It appears by the report of the Chief Superintendent of Education of P. E. I. that 21,843 pupils were enrolled in the schools of that Province last year, against only 16,109 eight years ago—an increase of about thirty-five per cent. The daily average attendance last year was nearly 12,000, against only a little over 9,000 in 1877.

In washing flannels, a tablespoonful of ammonia added to every two gallons of hot water is a decided economy in soap and labor, and improves the flannel greatly.

CATTLE FOR ENGLAND.—Upper Province cattle to the number of 522 were forwarded from Moncton to Halifax during the week ending 28th ult. for shipment to England.

PUTTNER'S EMULSION OF COD LIVER OIL.

Dr. Jenkins, of Montreal, says: "I prescribe your Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites largely in my practice, with most gratifying results. You may use my opinion in any way you desire; I cannot speak too highly of your preparation."

J. F. T. JENKINS, M. D., C. M., &c.

Capt. John R. Hire, of St. Lillian, speaks of it thus:

"I was suffering from a severe attack of inflammation of the chest, caused by a heavy cold brought on by exposure at sea, and on my next voyage, I took with me a good supply of Puttner's Emulsion, which I am happy to say, has perfectly cured me; indeed I cannot praise it too highly. I feel that it has given me a new set of lungs."

JOHN R. HIRE, Capt. Schr. Lillian.

From the Sec'y. Y. M. C. A., at Halifax:

Messrs. Puttner Emulsion Co.

Dear Sir,—I have used your Emulsion in my family for the simple cough as well as for the more obstinate kind; also, for general debility; in every case it has given the utmost satisfaction. I cheerfully recommend it as an excellent family medicine."

HENRY THEAKSTON.

H. A. Taylor, Esq., President N. S. Pharmaceutical Society, says: "Taking all in all I sell more of your Emulsion than all others combined, and having heard very favorable reports of benefits from its use, I consider it the best Cream or Emulsion offered to the public. It being scientifically prepared, it remains permanent and unchanged."

Send to your Druggist or to the Puttner Emulsion Co., Halifax, for a Pamphlet.
